1. In mid-January 1978 Ecuador agreed to participate in Condor, a counterterrorism organization composed of the intelligence services of several South American countries. The overall responsibility for Ecuador's participation and activities in Condor lie with the Ecuadorian Joint Command of the Armed Forces; however, the Joint Command has assigned various individual responsibilities to the Army, Navy and Air Force. For example, the Army through the Directorate General of Intelligence (DGI) is responsible for intelligence reporting and the exchange of information among various Condor members. The Navy is responsible for telecommunications and the Air Force is responsible for psychological warfare.
1.5 (C) THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTORATE (ONI) OF ECUADOR HAS INCORPORATED INTO THE CONDOR ORGANIZATION WITH THE NAME OF CONDOR. 2. AT PRESENT, AN ARGENTINE MILITARY OFFICER LTC NIGRA (PHONETIC) IS IN QUITO SUPERVISING THE INSTALLATION OF A TELECOMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM IN THE MINISTRY OF NATIONAL DEFENSE.

ARGENTINE LIEUTENANT COLONEL LUIS FRANCISCO NIGRA IS CHIEF OF THE COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM (CONDOR). THIS EQUIPMENT IS ON LOAN TO ECUADOR UNTIL ECUADOR MAKES ITS OWN PURCHASES. THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT HAS OFFERED FOUR SCHOLARSHIPS FOR ECUADORIAN MILITARY OFFICERS TO ATTEND THE CHILEAN INTELLIGENCE SCHOOL IN SANTIAGO.
