Tema 118 del programa

Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo

Actividades del sistema de las Naciones Unidas para la aplicación de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo

Informe del Secretario General

I. Introducción

1. La Asamblea General, en su resolución 70/291, solicitó al Secretario General que, a más tardar en abril de 2018, presentara un informe sobre los avances logrados en la aplicación de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo, incluidas sugerencias sobre su futura aplicación por el sistema de las Naciones Unidas.

2. En los últimos 30 años se ha producido un rápido aumento de la frecuencia, letalidad y alcance geográfico de los actos terroristas, que se han convertido en una amenaza sin precedentes para la paz, la seguridad y el desarrollo internacionales. También han aumentado en número e intensidad los conflictos internacionales e internos, que destruyen sociedades y desestabilizan regiones enteras. El terrorismo ha pasado a ser uno de los problemas más graves de nuestra época y ningún país está salvo de su amenaza ni puede hacerle frente por sí solo. El carácter transfronterizo de las actividades de financiación, reclutamiento y planificación que conllevan los actos terroristas es una característica común del fenómeno, por lo que se requiere una respuesta colectiva. Una de las máximas prioridades del Secretario General es prestar apoyo a los Estados Miembros para que puedan responder a esta amenaza mundial de manera equilibrada y eficaz.

3. Las Naciones Unidas siguen ayudando a los Estados Miembros a formular e implementar respuestas que tengan en cuenta los cuatro pilares de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo, a saber: a) medidas para hacer frente a las condiciones que propician la propagación del terrorismo; b) medidas para prevenir y combatir el terrorismo; c) medidas destinadas a aumentar la capacidad de los Estados para prevenir el terrorismo y luchar contra él, y a fortalecer el papel del sistema de las Naciones Unidas a ese respecto; y d) medidas para asegurar el respeto de los derechos humanos para todos y el imperio de la ley como base fundamental de la lucha contra el terrorismo. Por lo general, las respuestas que implican una aplicación equilibrada de los cuatro pilares han sido más eficaces para prevenir y contrarrestar los atentados terroristas.

4. Las dificultades de la lucha contra el terrorismo se ven agravadas por la rápida evolución de las tecnologías de las comunicaciones privadas, como la web oscura y el cifrado, ya que los grupos terroristas se adaptan con rapidez y utilizan estos adelantos para facilitar sus actividades de financiación, reclutamiento y propaganda, y por la adquisición de armas y las mejoras logísticas. Esto ha tenido efectos devastadores en comunidades locales de todo el mundo, especialmente en los miembros más marginados de la sociedad. El próximo examen de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo brindará a los Estados Miembros la oportunidad de seguir orientando el contenido de la Estrategia y sus prioridades.

5. Los principales responsables de aplicar la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo son los Estados Miembros, pero el papel de las Naciones Unidas es importante para promover la coordinación y la coherencia a nivel nacional, regional y mundial, con el fin de prestar la mejor asistencia posible a los Estados Miembros que lo soliciten para la aplicación equilibrada de la Estrategia.

6. En junio de 2017, la Asamblea General dio un paso más en esa dirección y aprobó la resolución 71/291, relativa al refuerzo de la capacidad del sistema de las Naciones Unidas de ayudar a los Estados Miembros en la aplicación de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. En ella, la Asamblea estableció la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo y nombró a un nuevo Secretario General Adjunto de la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo con el fin de aumentar la capacidad de la Organización para responder mejor a las crecientes necesidades de la comunidad internacional en la lucha contra el terrorismo.

7. En el presente informe se describen los principales retos y tendencias del cambiante panorama mundial del terrorismo y se destaca la importancia de la cooperación internacional para contrarrestar el terrorismo de manera eficaz. También se reseñan las respuestas internacionales a la amenaza transnacional del terrorismo y se exponen algunas de las deficiencias fundamentales que deben superarse en un futuro próximo. Por último, se formulan observaciones y recomendaciones sobre la manera de forjar nuevas alianzas internacionales contra el terrorismo, que serán imprescindibles para adelantarse a la amenaza que plantean los grupos terroristas.

II. El cambiante panorama mundial del terrorismo

A. Reseña de las amenazas actuales

8. Tras el auge que el Estado Islámico en el Iraq y el Levante (EIIL) cobró después de 2014, la comunidad internacional ha asistido a una continua transformación del panorama mundial del terrorismo. Se reclutan combatientes terroristas extranjeros en muchos Estados Miembros y los atentados terroristas se han extendido a un número cada vez mayor de países. Grupos terroristas como el EIIL, Al-Qaida y Boko Haram trascienden de las fronteras nacionales, por lo que es necesario aumentar la cooperación internacional para contrarrestar el terrorismo y prevenir el extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo.

9. En estos momentos, la lucha mundial contra el terrorismo inicia una nueva fase en la que la comunidad internacional tiene que hacer frente a varias redes terroristas mundiales paralelas e interrelacionadas. Pese a los importantes reveses militares que sufrió el EIIL en el Iraq, la República Árabe Siria y el sur de Filipinas en 2016 y 2017, el grupo y sus afiliados siguen representando una amenaza considerable y cambiante en todo el mundo. Actualmente, el EIIL está organizado en forma de red mundial, con jerarquía horizontal y menos control operacional de sus afiliados. Aunque su estructura propagandística y la cantidad y calidad de sus productos empeoran cada vez más, es probable que, tras su desintegración territorial, el EIIL intente mantener su influencia mundial utilizando Internet y las plataformas de los medios sociales con el fin de instigar, movilizar y dirigir a sus seguidores para que perpetren atentados en sus países de origen.

10. La derrota militar del EIIL en el Iraq y la República Árabe Siria también ha contribuido a agravar la amenaza que suponen el regreso o la reubicación de los combatientes terroristas extranjeros, los cuales, junto con el creciente número de “viajeros frustrados”<sup>1</sup>, representan un problema para la seguridad interna de los Estados Miembros. Muchos de quienes regresan están bien adiestrados y equipados para perpetrar atentados en sus propios países y pueden aportar nuevas capacidades a las redes internas ya existentes, mientras que otros aspiran a radicalizar y reclutar a nuevos seguidores para sus respectivas causas. Entre las personas que regresan hay mujeres y niños, lo que crea una serie de dificultades específicas para los Estados Miembros. El regreso y la reubicación de los combatientes terroristas extranjeros es un fenómeno mundial que exige una respuesta multilateral urgente y concertada.

11. La red mundial de Al-Qaida mantiene su resiliencia en varias regiones del mundo. Pese a la presión militar a que está sometida, Al-Qaida en la Península Arábiga sirve cada vez más de centro de comunicaciones para toda Al-Qaida. Por su parte, Al-Qaida en el Magreb Islámico ha ampliado sus operaciones en el Sahel y en África Occidental, mientras que Boko Haram sigue representando una amenaza para Nigeria y sus vecinos, aunque está muy debilitado por la presión militar. En África Oriental, la actividad y predominancia de Al-Shabaab han sido mayores que las del EIIL y el grupo sigue siendo capaz de planificar y ejecutar ataques a gran escala. Algunos miembros de las redes del EIIL y Al-Qaida han demostrado tener la voluntad y la capacidad de ayudarse mutuamente para preparar atentados.

12. Por otro lado, las tácticas terroristas también han seguido evolucionando. Gracias a los avances tecnológicos de los últimos años, a los terroristas les resulta más fácil hacer propaganda y reclutar a seguidores en línea. Se aprovechan de los medios sociales, incluidas las comunicaciones cifradas y la web oscura, para difundir información y conocimientos técnicos, como diseños de artefactos explosivos improvisados y metodologías de ataque, y para coordinar y facilitar sus atentados. Además, los grupos terroristas alientan a sus seguidores a perpetrar atentados menos sofisticados con vehículos, armas de fuego y armas blancas, que apenas requieren adiestramiento y planificación y son sumamente difíciles de prevenir. Muchos de estos atentados se dirigen contra blancos fáciles, como zonas públicas, con el fin de maximizar el número de víctimas e infundir temor.

13. En todo el mundo, los grupos terroristas y extremistas violentos siguen decididos a crear enfrentamientos entre las sociedades y dentro de ellas, obstaculizando los esfuerzos de la comunidad internacional por mantener la paz y la seguridad, proteger los derechos humanos y promover el desarrollo sostenible. Los grupos terroristas como el EIIL y Al-Qaida fomentan un relato destructivo, pero los grupos extremistas violentos, como los supremacistas raciales, los de extrema derecha y otros grupos con motivaciones políticas o religiosas también representan una importante amenaza para la cohesión y la seguridad de nuestras sociedades y comunidades.

B. Amenazas y desafíos emergentes: inteligencia artificial, drones, ataques con armas químicas, biológicas, radiológicas o nucleares y ciberataques

14. Los recientes adelantos tecnológicos en el campo de la inteligencia artificial, la robótica, la biotecnología e Internet han reportado a la humanidad grandes avances, conectando a las personas de todo el mundo y promoviendo el desarrollo sostenible en esferas generales como la productividad económica, la atención sanitaria y el transporte. Y estas tecnologías prometen conseguir más progresos en el futuro.

15. Sin embargo, estos adelantos también permiten a los miembros de grupos terroristas y extremistas violentos intercambiar información sobre la logística, la planificación y el reclutamiento. Además, la difusión en línea de propaganda y un discurso de odio, que a veces se intensifica por el sesgo algorítmico sin que nos demos cuenta, contribuyen a polarizar las sociedades y facilitan las estrategias de incitación y reclutamiento de esos grupos.

16. Por otro lado, es probable que los terroristas mejoren su capacidad ofensiva para aprovechar la creciente interconexión de ciertos sectores, como la banca y las finanzas, las telecomunicaciones, los servicios de emergencia, el transporte aéreo, marítimo y ferroviario, y el suministro de energía y agua, a fin de llevar a cabo ciberataques contra esas infraestructuras vitales. El acceso cada vez mayor a las máquinas autónomas, que no necesitan tripulantes para volar o desplazarse, ampliará la gama de posibles atentados terroristas, y la disponibilidad de kits con los que cualquiera sería capaz de modificar genes de células vivas podría empoderar a pequeños grupos para perpetrar ataques de “bioterrorismo” que afectarían a millones de personas.

17. En ocasiones, los grupos terroristas y extremistas violentos también han aprovechado los cambios ambientales, ya sea para explotar con más facilidad recursos que escasean o para usarlos como activos o armas, por ejemplo, para inundar tierras y envenenar pozos de agua.

18. Estos futuros desafíos y amenazas, junto con otros muchos que aún no podemos ni imaginar, afectan a diversas dimensiones e instancias políticas, sociales, económicas y culturales. Si bien las primeras iniciativas de colaboración, como el Foro Mundial de Internet para Contrarrestar el Terrorismo, son encomiables, para prevenir nuevas amenazas y adelantarse a las que ya existen será necesario forjar alianzas estratégicas y fomentar la cooperación internacional entre los Estados Miembros, las organizaciones internacionales y regionales, el sector privado, los círculos académicos y otras instancias. El Secretario General ha pedido a la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo que intensifique su labor de liderazgo y coordinación del sistema de las Naciones Unidas para que este sea más flexible e innovador al abordar estas situaciones. Como primera medida, la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo está cooperando con el Programa de las Naciones Unidas para el Desarrollo (PNUD), la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo y la Organización de las Naciones Unidas para la Educación, la Ciencia y la Cultura (UNESCO) en un estudio mundial cuyo objetivo es comprender mejor el papel que las herramientas en línea desempeñan en el reclutamiento de terroristas. Este proyecto también constituirá un foro para el diálogo entre los Estados Miembros, las Naciones Unidas y el sector privado de la tecnología de Internet, y aspira a formular recomendaciones normativas en la materia.

III. Abordar el déficit de la cooperación multilateral

19. Desde que se aprobó la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo en 2006, la comunidad internacional ha intentado afrontar la cambiante amenaza del terrorismo mediante la aplicación equilibrada de sus cuatro pilares. El examen de la Estrategia cada dos años ha brindado la oportunidad de subsanar las carencias y deficiencias del enfoque adoptado por la comunidad internacional para resolver ciertos problemas concretos de la lucha antiterrorista.

20. Durante la serie de sesiones de alto nivel del septuagésimo segundo período de sesiones de la Asamblea General, celebrada en septiembre de 2017, 152 dirigentes, que representaban a la inmensa mayoría de los Estados Miembros, destacaron la necesidad de mejorar la cooperación internacional en la lucha contra el terrorismo. El Secretario General comparte esa opinión, y está claro que, en múltiples niveles, no se coopera bastante para afrontar esta amenaza que cada vez tiene un carácter más transnacional y polifacético, tanto por lo que respecta a sus manifestaciones como a sus consecuencias humanas y socioeconómicas. De ahí que sea preciso iniciar una nueva era de colaboración para combatir el flagelo del terrorismo.

A. Forjar un consenso sobre las iniciativas mundiales contra el terrorismo

21. Ciertamente, el terrorismo, y la necesidad de encontrar formas efectivas de combatirlo, es un problema que aúna a toda la comunidad internacional. La Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo, junto con diversas resoluciones y declaraciones del Consejo de Seguridad y también el derecho de los derechos humanos y el derecho humanitario, son el núcleo del marco normativo internacional vigente que tiene por objeto contrarrestar el terrorismo de manera eficaz. Sin embargo, es muy frecuente que los esfuerzos de la comunidad internacional por atajar la amenaza terrorista se estancan debido a motivos políticos, situación que, por desgracia, aprovechan los grupos terroristas para tratar de fomentar nuestras disensiones.

22. Aunque no cabe duda de que en el futuro será necesario entablar un diálogo político más constructivo sobre el terrorismo, los Estados Miembros deben centrarse en lo que nos une al librar esta batalla, y no en lo que nos separa. Es preciso adoptar un enfoque pragmático y práctico encaminado a mejorar los métodos técnicos y operacionales de la lucha antiterrorista y a movilizar la cooperación multilateral en el plano bilateral, regional y mundial.

23. La Conferencia de Alto Nivel de las Naciones Unidas de Jefes de Organismos Antiterroristas de los Estados Miembros, que tendrá lugar en la Sede de las Naciones Unidas los días 28 y 29 de junio de 2018, será el primer paso para forjar una nueva alianza de cooperación multilateral y supondrá un avance para despolitizar las iniciativas de la comunidad internacional contra el terrorismo. La conferencia, cuyo tema es “Fortalecimiento de la cooperación internacional para combatir la cambiante amenaza del terrorismo”, reunirá a los jefes de organismos antiterroristas nacionales para realizar intercambios operacionales y prácticos y forjar un consenso sobre las principales cuestiones relacionadas con el terrorismo que afectan a los Estados Miembros. Cabe esperar que esta conferencia dé inicio a una nueva era de cooperación internacional e impulse la creación de alianzas operacionales centradas en buscar soluciones prácticas para la amenaza terrorista a que se enfrenta la comunidad internacional, con miras a aplicar la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo.

B. Importancia crucial de la implicación nacional, el fortalecimiento de la gobernanza y la formulación de políticas sostenibles

24. Aunque la cooperación multilateral es imprescindible para contrarrestar la amenaza terrorista, los Estados Miembros son los principales responsables de luchar contra el terrorismo, como se indica en la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. La implicación nacional en las iniciativas antiterroristas es esencial para que estas surtan efecto. Ahora bien, las responsabilidades de los Estados a este respecto van intrínsecamente ligadas a su deber primordial de proteger a la población de los atentados, así como a la necesidad de velar por que las medidas antiterroristas no causen daño ni alimenten el descontento. Según el informe del PNUD titulado “Journey to extremism in Africa: drivers, incentives and the tipping point for recruitment”<sup>2</sup>, que se publicó en 2017, el 71% de los entrevistados indicaron que el punto de inflexión que había provocado que estas personas que ya corrían riesgo por su ideología radical dieran el paso de convertirse en miembros de un grupo extremista violento había sido “una acción gubernamental”, por ejemplo, “la muerte de un familiar o amigo” o “la detención de un familiar o amigo”.

25. El mundo se ha polarizado cada vez más desde el 11 de septiembre de 2001, y este aumento de la polarización y las divisiones es el germen de nuevos conflictos. Los Estados Miembros no deben caer en la trampa que nos tiende el terrorismo para que reaccionemos de manera contraproducente. El círculo vicioso de provocaciones y respuestas solo servirá para fomentar el odio, en lugar de traernos paz, seguridad y unidad.

26. El Secretario General ha reiterado en diversas ocasiones que el terrorismo no está vinculado a ninguna religión, etnia o raza. En 2017, un estudio del Centro de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo reveló que, en su mayoría, los extremistas violentos no conocían bien la religión que profesaban. Por ello hay que contrarrestar las estrategias alienantes y el odio mediante políticas de base empírica, una adopción de decisiones inclusiva, la diversidad, la protección de las minorías y las personas vulnerables, la rendición de cuentas y la justicia. Además, el Secretario General insiste en la importancia que tiene el diálogo intercultural para tratar de superar los cismas sociales y culturales.

C. Necesidad de nuevas alianzas antiterroristas

27. La lucha contra el terrorismo figura en la agenda de numerosas organizaciones regionales y subregionales. A lo largo de los años, los Estados Miembros han tratado de aprovechar las iniciativas y los mecanismos internacionales, regionales y bilaterales en la lucha contra el terrorismo. Muchos de ellos también han creado nuevos foros y coaliciones mundiales para intercambiar buenas prácticas y coordinar sus esfuerzos. Sin embargo, todavía queda mucho camino por recorrer.

28. La colaboración de los Estados Miembros para prevenir y contrarrestar el terrorismo debe basarse en el estado de derecho y respetar los derechos humanos. La Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo, las resoluciones pertinentes del Consejo de Seguridad, los instrumentos jurídicos internacionales contra el terrorismo y el derecho internacional constituyen un sólido marco político y legislativo. Estos compromisos y obligaciones comunes deben traducirse en la adopción de medidas concretas y prácticas por los Estados Miembros para compartir

29. El aumento de la cooperación entre las Naciones Unidas, las organizaciones regionales y subregionales y otros foros multilaterales, como el Foro Mundial contra el Terrorismo, también ayudará a promover las iniciativas internacionales para contrarrestar eficazmente el terrorismo. De hecho, las organizaciones regionales y subregionales pueden tener un efecto multiplicador del apoyo a los esfuerzos de los Estados Miembros por combatir el terrorismo. Por ello, la Asamblea General ha alentado a los Estados Miembros a que hagan uso de esas organizaciones y faciliten sus contribuciones en esta esfera.

30. Por otra parte, los activos del sector privado pueden ser vulnerables a la explotación o los ataques de los terroristas. Esta posibilidad se ha puesto especialmente de manifiesto cuando, por ejemplo, los grupos terroristas usan de forma indebida las nuevas tecnologías para aprovecharse del sector financiero y atacar infraestructuras vitales o blancos fáciles. De ahí la importancia de abordar estos problemas mediante enfoques voluntarios y regulatorios. Sin embargo, las alianzas público-privadas también pueden ayudar a mejorar el intercambio de información y la eficacia de las medidas de protección y mitigación, por lo que deben complementar las medidas de regulación vigentes. Aunque es natural que las entidades del sector privado tengan interés en proteger sus negocios, también deben prestar más atención a su responsabilidad social en el contexto de la lucha contra el terrorismo.

31. Aunque los Gobiernos nacionales son los principales responsables de prevenir y contrarrestar el terrorismo, la Asamblea General y el Consejo de Seguridad han reconocido que la sociedad civil, incluidas las organizaciones no gubernamentales, pueden hacer importantes contribuciones en ese sentido. Es fundamental aprovechar al máximo los posibles aportes de las organizaciones de la sociedad civil, sobre todo para aumentar la resiliencia al extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo, y para mitigar las consecuencias del terrorismo.

D. Estructura multilateral y marcos jurídicos contra el terrorismo

32. La comunidad internacional ha respondido a la cambiante amenaza terrorista mundial creando una amplia estructura multilateral contra el terrorismo a nivel mundial, regional y nacional. Las Naciones Unidas desempeñan una función esencial en el establecimiento del marco normativo y jurídico internacional contra el terrorismo y los mecanismos para su aplicación efectiva. En estos momentos, el marco está integrado por los convenios y protocolos internacionales relativos al terrorismo y los derechos humanos, la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo y otras resoluciones de la Asamblea General y el Consejo de Seguridad (véase el anexo I). También es importante el papel de otros órganos multilaterales, como el Foro Mundial contra el Terrorismo, para establecer buenas prácticas. Además, muchos Estados Miembros han elaborado sus propios marcos legislativos internos a partir del marco internacional y cooperan bilateral y regionalmente para fortalecer la lucha antiterrorista.

E. Medidas de las Naciones Unidas para abordar las graves consecuencias del terrorismo: los derechos humanos y las víctimas

33. Tal como destacó el Secretario General en su discurso sobre la lucha antiterrorista y los derechos humanos, pronunciado en Londres el 16 de noviembre de 2017, la lucha contra el terrorismo no puede dar fruto si no se garantiza el respeto de los derechos humanos y el estado de derecho. Es muy preocupante que se aprueben leyes y políticas antiterroristas sin tener debidamente en cuenta sus consecuencias para la protección de los derechos humanos, como también lo es, en particular, que los niños vinculados con grupos terroristas sean considerados como un riesgo para la seguridad y no como víctimas.

34. Desde hace más de un decenio, los actos terroristas causan muchos miles de víctimas mortales cada año, además de provocar prácticamente el colapso de las instituciones del Estado, sobre todo en las zonas y fronteras menos urbanizadas. Algunos de los países afectados por el terrorismo destacan por su escasa capacidad institucional para atajar la amenaza terrorista y prevenir los atentados. Esos países también suelen necesitar que se preste un mayor apoyo a sus esfuerzos por defender los derechos y la dignidad de las víctimas y los supervivientes de los actos de terrorismo.

35. El uso de la violencia sexual como táctica terrorista, que incluye la violación, el matrimonio forzado y la esclavitud sexual, causa a los supervivientes y sus familias graves secuelas físicas y psicológicas y dificultades sociales (véase S/2017/249). Es muy frecuente que las víctimas no reciban en absoluto asistencia para ejercer su derecho a la justicia y la dignidad, y a recibir apoyo psicosocial y ayuda para la subsistencia.

36. Con el fin de abordar mejor esos problemas, las Naciones Unidas han adoptado una serie de medidas para aumentar la rendición de cuentas por delitos de terrorismo y han recalcado la importancia de fortalecer la cooperación judicial. El Consejo de Seguridad, en su resolución 2322 \(2016\), reafirmó que debían exigirse responsabilidades a aquellos que hubieran cometido actos de terrorismo y violaciones del derecho internacional humanitario o el derecho de los derechos humanos, en particular mediante una mayor cooperación internacional. De igual modo, las medidas adoptadas a nivel nacional también hacen hincapié en que es necesario establecer mecanismos eficaces para que los autores de crímenes atroces no escapen a la acción de la justicia.

37. La comunidad internacional no puede olvidar la repercusión que el terrorismo tiene en los ciudadanos y debe apoyar a quienes sufren las consecuencias de actos terroristas indiscriminados, ayudándolos verdaderamente a recuperarse, rehabilitando a las víctimas y asegurándose de que se reintegren en sus comunidades. Las víctimas son un elemento central de las estrategias y planes de acción contra el terrorismo y es fundamental que se reconozcan sus necesidades y derechos específicos, lo que puede contribuir a impedir la propagación del extremismo violento que conduce al terrorismo. El Consejo de Seguridad, en su resolución 2331 \(2016\), expresó su preocupación por el uso de la violencia sexual y por razón de género como táctica de terrorismo y afirmó que las víctimas de actos de violencia sexual cometidos por grupos terroristas debían ser también consideradas víctimas del terrorismo. La proclamación del 21 de agosto como Día Internacional de Conmemoración y Homenaje a las Víctimas del Terrorismo pone de relieve el compromiso de la comunidad internacional de solidarizarse con las víctimas y procurar que se reconozcan sus derechos.

F. Conquistar el corazón y la mente de nuestros jóvenes

38. Los grupos terroristas llevan décadas realizando actividades de reclutamiento dirigidas específicamente a los jóvenes. Mediante tácticas de interacción juvenil, aprovechando el descontento y empleando una estética atractiva, como la propaganda digital inspirada en los videojuegos, esos grupos han sabido explotar la tendencia de los jóvenes a dar sentido a su vida con actitudes singulares y diferentes de la norma social.

39. A menudo es la desesperanza la que hace que la juventud se sienta atraída por los grupos terroristas y extremistas violentos. Tres de los principales factores que contribuyen a esta situación son la falta de oportunidades, sobre todo en la educación y el empleo, la sensación de estar discriminados y excluidos, y el carácter opresivo de algunas medidas antiterroristas. Estos y otros factores pueden hacer que los jóvenes sean susceptibles de sucumbir al falso encanto de los grupos terroristas; de hecho, la mayoría de los reclutados suelen ser menores de 25 años. Los gobiernos deben tener presentes esos problemas y tratar por todos los medios de dar esperanzas concretas a los jóvenes implementando políticas que no destruyan sus oportunidades ni los discriminen, excluyan u opriman. Cuando se viola y mata a jóvenes en su propio hogar, en la escuela o en sus aldeas, no cabe la menor duda de que el terrorismo se ha convertido en una de las lacras más peligrosas para la juventud de todo el mundo.

40. Los planes nacionales de desarrollo y la cooperación internacional para el desarrollo deben dar prioridad absoluta al empleo, la educación y la formación profesional de los jóvenes. Aunque es esencial crear este tipo de oportunidades, la comunidad internacional también debe escuchar a los jóvenes, recabar su participación e inspirarlos para que intervengan en los procesos decisivos. Pero esta colaboración no debe ser simbólica ni limitarse a una tarea más de la lista que hay que completar, sino que ha de ser significativa y fomentar la participación con un planteamiento más creativo y de base, aprovechando la tecnología siempre que sea posible. El Secretario General pretende que las Naciones Unidas sean mucho más receptivas y pertinentes para los jóvenes de todo el mundo (véase A/72/761-S/2018/86).

41. Por otro lado, la juventud busca ideas visionarias que estimulen su imaginación y prometan cambios tangibles. Los jóvenes constituyen un recurso sumamente valioso para nuestras sociedades, por lo que es necesario escucharlos y, en algunos casos, brindarles apoyo y protección. Debemos hacer una mayor inversión para aprovechar la fuerza positiva que nuestra juventud representa en la innovación económica y social.

IV. Progresos realizados en la aplicación de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo por las entidades de las Naciones Unidas y los Estados Miembros

42. Durante los últimos dos años, muchas entidades del Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo han apoyado la aplicación de los cuatro pilares de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. A continuación, se exponen algunas de sus actividades; se proporcionan más detalles en el anexo II, que incluye también una matriz de proyectos y actividades antiterroristas de las Naciones Unidas.

Pilar I: medidas para hacer frente a las condiciones que propician la propagación del terrorismo

43. Nuestra primera línea de defensa contra el terrorismo es prevenir y resolver los conflictos. Cuando el Secretario General asumió su cargo, formuló esta prioridad y pidió que se adoptara un nuevo enfoque de la prevención de los conflictos y el sostenimiento de la paz. En enero de 2018 publicó su informe sobre la consolidación y el sostenimiento de la paz (A/72/707-S/2018/43), en el que se exponía la magnitud y naturaleza del reto. El Secretario General está convencido de que la fragmentación de los esfuerzos realizados en el marco del sistema de las Naciones Unidas socava su capacidad para apoyar las iniciativas de los Estados Miembros encaminadas a crear y sostener sociedades pacíficas y responder de forma temprana y eficaz a los conflictos

y las crisis. En su informe presenta un conjunto de reformas que se refuerzan mutuamente para asegurar que las Naciones Unidas se adecúen mejor a su objetivo, en particular, en los ámbitos del desarrollo, la gestión y la paz y la seguridad.

44. Después de publicarse el Plan de Acción para Prevenir el Extremismo Violento (A/70/674), el PNUD preparó en marzo de 2016 un amplio marco estratégico titulado “Preventing violent extremism through promoting inclusive development, tolerance and respect for diversity”, que se revisó en febrero de 2017<sup>3</sup>. El PNUD ha ejecutado una serie de proyectos para abordar las condiciones que conducen a la propagación del terrorismo y el extremismo violento mediante el desarrollo inclusivo y la promoción de la tolerancia, y la mitigación de los factores que desencadenan el paso del descontento a la radicalización y, posteriormente, al extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo.

Pilar II: medidas para prevenir y combatir el terrorismo

45. De conformidad con las resoluciones del Consejo de Seguridad 2322 (2016) y 2396 (2017), la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo ha intensificado sus esfuerzos para promover la utilización responsable de los datos biométricos. Junto con el Grupo de Trabajo sobre la Gestión de las Fronteras y el Cumplimiento de la Ley en relación con la Lucha contra el Terrorismo del Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo, está elaborando un compendio de buenas prácticas y recomendaciones para los Estados Miembros sobre la recopilación, el registro y el intercambio de datos biométricos. La Organización Internacional de Policía Criminal (INTERPOL) continúa ayudando a los Estados Miembros a detectar e identificar positivamente a los miembros de los grupos terroristas transnacionales conocidos y sus facilitadores. INTERPOL también presta asistencia a las actividades policiales de los Estados Miembros mejorando la seguridad de las fronteras nacionales y regionales, reduciendo la circulación transfronteriza de terroristas y sus afiliados, y detectando y desarticulando las redes que facilitan sus viajes.

Pilar III: medidas destinadas a aumentar la capacidad de los Estados para prevenir el terrorismo y luchar contra él, y a fortalecer el papel del sistema de las Naciones Unidas a ese respecto

46. La Oficina de las Naciones Unidas contra la Droga y el Delito (UNODC) presta asistencia jurídica para la redacción de leyes nacionales contra el terrorismo. Desde enero de 2016, ha contribuido a que se produzcan 40 nuevas ratificaciones por Estados Miembros de los convenios y protocolos internacionales relativos al terrorismo, ayudado a revisar o redactar más de 35 instrumentos legislativos e impartido formación a más de 8.000 funcionarios del sistema de justicia penal con más de 400 talleres. Por ejemplo, la UNODC ha impartido formación a jueces y policías iraquíes para que puedan trasladarse a los territorios liberados del EIIL e investigar, juzgar y resolver causas relacionadas con delitos de terrorismo.

Pilar IV: medidas para asegurar el respeto de los derechos humanos para todos y el imperio de la ley como base fundamental de la lucha contra el terrorismo

47. Las Naciones Unidas han dejado bien claro que todas las leyes, políticas, estrategias y prácticas nacionales que se adopten para contrarrestar el terrorismo y prevenir el extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo deben respetar y proteger los derechos humanos y el estado de derecho. Por ello, siguen alentando a los Estados Miembros a que centren sus medidas antiterroristas en las conductas efectivas de ciertas personas y grupos, no en las creencias que profesan, ya que esto último contravendría el derecho internacional de los derechos humanos.

48. La Relatora Especial sobre la promoción y protección de los derechos humanos y las libertades fundamentales en la lucha contra el terrorismo sigue recopilando, solicitando, recibiendo e intercambiando información sobre presuntas violaciones de los derechos humanos y las libertades fundamentales en la lucha contra el terrorismo. También informa periódicamente al Consejo de Derechos Humanos y la Asamblea General sobre las buenas políticas y prácticas de la aplicación de medidas antiterroristas que respeten plenamente los derechos humanos, y sobre los retos actuales y emergentes a ese respecto.

Centro de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo

49. Durante los dos últimos años, el Centro de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo de la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo ha seguido prestando a los Estados Miembros que lo solicitan asistencia para desarrollar su capacidad de aplicar la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo de manera eficaz y equilibrada. En 2016, el Centro puso en marcha un programa quinquenal para el período 2016-2020, que fue aprobado por su Junta Consultiva en diciembre de 2015. El programa dirige la labor del Centro hacia cuatro resultados generales, cada uno de los cuales guarda relación con uno de los cuatro pilares de la Estrategia. En el período que abarca el presente informe, el Centro continuó ejecutando proyectos relativos a 12 esferas temáticas prioritarias, a saber: prevención del extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo, combatientes terroristas extranjeros, estrategias antiterroristas, lucha contra la financiación del terrorismo, seguridad y gestión de las fronteras, ciberseguridad, respeto de los derechos humanos en la lucha contra el terrorismo, apoyo a las víctimas del terrorismo, asistencia integrada contra el terrorismo, fomento y apoyo a la acción común de las entidades de las Naciones Unidas en la lucha antiterrorista, redes antiterroristas y cooperación Sur-Sur.

50. Además, el Centro de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo ha reforzado su capacidad para supervisar y evaluar su contribución a la aplicación de los cuatro pilares de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. Para ello, hace un seguimiento sistemático de los progresos en la obtención de los productos y resultados de su programa quinquenal a partir de ciertos indicadores, bases de referencia y metas. El Centro ha incorporado el género en su labor sustantiva integrando la perspectiva de género en la elaboración y ejecución de sus proyectos de desarrollo de la capacidad y también ha extendido la práctica de ejecutar proyectos conjuntos con entidades de las Naciones Unidas para aprovechar especializaciones concretas y evitar la duplicación de esfuerzos.

51. Los Estados Miembros han hecho asimismo considerables esfuerzos para aplicar la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. La Secretaría ha recibido comunicaciones de los siguientes Estados Miembros sobre su aplicación de la Estrategia: Alemania, Arabia Saudita, Argelia, Argentina, Belarús, Bélgica, Bulgaria, Canadá, Cuba, Ecuador, Emiratos Árabes Unidos, Eslovaquia, Estados Unidos de América, Finlandia, Francia, Georgia, Grecia, Israel, Japón, Letonia, Líbano, Malasia, Malí, Mónaco, Montenegro, Noruega, Omán, Países Bajos, Pakistán, Paraguay, Polonia, Portugal, Qatar, República Árabe Siria, Rumania, San Marino, Serbia, Singapur, Suecia, Suiza, Túnez, Ucrania, Uruguay y Venezuela (República Bolivariana de). Además, la Asamblea Parlamentaria del Mediterráneo y la Unión Europea aportaron información sobre sus actividades de apoyo a la Estrategia. Los Estados Miembros pueden consultar esta información, previa solicitud, en la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo.

52. Las entidades de las Naciones Unidas que tienen el mandato fundamental de desarrollar la capacidad de las instituciones del estado de derecho, así como las que ejecutan programas y actividades pertinentes, continúan ayudando a los Estados Miembros a aplicar la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. La Secretaría ha recibido comunicaciones de las siguientes entidades sobre su aplicación de la Estrategia: la Alianza de Civilizaciones de las Naciones Unidas, el Departamento de Operaciones de Mantenimiento de la Paz, la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo, el Instituto Interregional de las Naciones Unidas para Investigaciones sobre la Delincuencia y la Justicia, la Oficina del Alto Comisionado de las Naciones Unidas para los Derechos Humanos (ACNUDH), la Organización de Aviación Civil Internacional, la Organización Marítima Internacional, la Oficina de Asuntos de Desarme, la Organización Mundial de Aduanas, la UNESCO, la UNODC y el Comité del Consejo de Seguridad establecido en virtud de la resolución 1540 \(2004\). En el anexo II figura una matriz de los proyectos y actividades antiterroristas de las Naciones Unidas.

V. Una mejor respuesta internacional a la amenaza terrorista

53. La comunidad internacional ha avanzado mucho en la lucha antiterrorista desde que se aprobó la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. Un medio decisivo para que la lucha contra el terrorismo sea más eficaz es centrarse en la prevención, pero también reforzar la cooperación internacional y aumentar la coordinación y coherencia de la labor de las Naciones Unidas en la materia. Esta es la mejor forma de evitar que se cree un círculo vicioso de inestabilidad y resentimiento.

54. Tras el último examen de la Estrategia Global contra el Terrorismo, la prevención del extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo se ha convertido en una prioridad para muchos Estados Miembros y organizaciones regionales y subregionales. El Secretario General convoca periódicamente un grupo de acción de alto nivel sobre la prevención del extremismo violento, integrado por los jefes de 22 departamentos, organismos, fondos y programas de las Naciones Unidas, con el fin de adoptar un enfoque común, coordinado y coherente para ayudar a los Estados Miembros a ese respecto. En su calidad de secretaria del grupo de acción de alto nivel, la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo cartografía constantemente la labor de las Naciones Unidas, que en la actualidad se desarrolla en 81 países de todas las regiones del mundo, para prevenir el extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo, en respuesta a las solicitudes de los Estados Miembros.

55. Casi 60 Estados Miembros y numerosas organizaciones regionales están preparando o han empezado a preparar planes de acción nacionales y regionales para prevenir el extremismo violento. La Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo y el PNUD cooperan a nivel estratégico para responder a esta demanda creciente. Combinando su especialización con la presencia permanente del PNUD sobre el terreno, la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo podrá seguir intensificando el apoyo que presta a la elaboración de planes nacionales y regionales conforme a lo dispuesto en la resolución 70/291 de la Asamblea General.

a) Reforma de la estructura antiterrorista de las Naciones Unidas

56. En junio de 2017 se creó la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo en virtud de la resolución 71/291 de la Asamblea General y a partir de la propuesta formulada en el informe del Secretario General sobre la capacidad del sistema de las Naciones Unidas de ayudar a los Estados Miembros en la aplicación de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo (A/71/858). Desde entonces, la Oficina ya ha tomado medidas prácticas para garantizar la aplicación equilibrada de los cuatro pilares de la Estrategia.

57. La Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo y su Secretario General Adjunto tienen el siguiente mandato: seguir liderando los mandatos de lucha contra el terrorismo de la Asamblea General que encomienden al Secretario General las distintas entidades del sistema de las Naciones Unidas; reforzar la coordinación y la coherencia entre las 38 entidades del Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo y el Pacto Mundial de Coordinación de la Lucha Antiterrorista, a fin de garantizar la aplicación equilibrada de la Estrategia Global contra el Terrorismo; mejorar la prestación de asistencia de las Naciones Unidas a los Estados Miembros para la creación de capacidad contra el terrorismo; seguir aumentando la visibilidad y la promoción de las actividades de las Naciones Unidas contra el terrorismo, así como la movilización de recursos destinados a esas iniciativas; y velar por que se dé la prioridad oportuna a la lucha contra el terrorismo en todo el sistema de las Naciones Unidas y por que la importante labor de prevención del extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo se asiente firmemente en la Estrategia. Para ello habrá que mejorar el apoyo antiterrorista que se presta a las operaciones de las Naciones Unidas sobre el terreno, armonizándolo lo más posible con la reforma de la estructura de paz y seguridad de las Naciones Unidas y los mandatos encomendados por los Estados Miembros. El Secretario General también hace hincapié en que la promoción y la protección de los derechos humanos y el estado de derecho son esenciales para revitalizar las actividades de las Naciones Unidas contra el terrorismo.

58. Siguiendo la recomendación del Secretario General, los Estados Miembros han conferido a la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo un mandato firme y polifacético, lo que demuestra las grandes expectativas que tienen y que el Secretario General está decidido a cumplir. A su juicio, la labor de la Oficina debe girar en torno a tres funciones: políticas y coordinación, creación de capacidad y actividades sobre el terreno. Cada una de esas funciones ha de transversalizarse debidamente y contar con recursos suficientes, de conformidad con la resolución resultante del examen que tendrá lugar en junio de 2018, bajo la dirección general del Secretario General para la Lucha contra el Terrorismo. Para ello debería efectuarse una reorganización interna de la Oficina a fin de responder a la creciente demanda de los Estados Miembros de asistencia para la creación de capacidad en los cuatro pilares de la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo.

59. La amenaza del terrorismo es compleja y cambiante, por lo que la respuesta de las Naciones Unidas debe ser eficaz, coherente y coordinada. La Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo (resolución 60/288 de la Asamblea General), las sucesivas resoluciones de examen y el Plan de Acción para Prevenir el Extremismo Violento (véanse A/70/674 y A/70/675) ponen de relieve lo importante que es aumentar la coordinación y coherencia entre las entidades de las Naciones Unidas que se ocupan de cuestiones antiterroristas a fin de ayudar efectivamente a los Estados Miembros y las organizaciones regionales a formular e implementar respuestas integrales para combatir el flagelo del terrorismo. De hecho, la necesidad de mejorar la coordinación fue una de las principales razones por las que se creó la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo.

60. El 23 de febrero de 2018, el Secretario General firmó el nuevo Pacto Mundial de Coordinación de la Lucha Antiterrorista de las Naciones Unidas (véase el anexo III), marco que acordó con los jefes de las entidades de las Naciones Unidas y con INTERPOL y la Organización Mundial de Aduanas para superar los problemas de coordinación y coherencia de la lucha antiterrorista en todo el sistema. El objetivo fundamental del Pacto es reforzar la acción común en la labor del sistema de las Naciones Unidas contra el terrorismo. En última instancia, el Pacto ofrece un medio para fomentar a nivel estratégico la coordinación y coherencia de las actividades antiterroristas de las Naciones Unidas y llena el vacío creado por la falta de mandato del Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo y sus grupos de trabajo. Una vez lo hayan firmado todas las entidades, está previsto que el Pacto sustituya al mecanismo de coordinación del Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo, sin que esta transición afecte a los mandatos de los grupos de trabajo y quienes los dirigen.

61. En estos momentos, el Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo tiene 12 grupos de trabajo temáticos, que resultan muy útiles para fomentar la coordinación y la coherencia. En los grupos participan las entidades que se ocupan de cada tema concreto a fin de coordinar su labor de desarrollo de la capacidad para apoyar las actividades antiterroristas de los Estados Miembros. Los grupos de trabajo se reúnen trimestralmente e informan dos veces al año al Secretario General Adjunto para la Lucha contra el Terrorismo, en su calidad de Presidente del Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo. Además de la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo y la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo, presiden grupos de trabajo los representantes de la UNODC, INTERPOL, la UNESCO, el ACNUDH, el Departamento de Información Pública, la Entidad de las Naciones Unidas para la Igualdad de Género y el Empoderamiento de las Mujeres (ONU-Mujeres), la Organización para la Prohibición de las Armas Químicas y el Organismo Internacional de Energía Atómica, entre otros. Recientemente se han establecido nuevos grupos de trabajo sobre comunicaciones y género para coordinar las actividades antiterroristas de las Naciones Unidas en estas importantes esferas.

62. Para que las actividades antiterroristas de las Naciones Unidas sean coordinadas y coherentes, también es crucial que la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo y la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo cooperen efectivamente y desarrollen una labor conjunta. Desde que se creó la Oficina, ambos órganos se han esforzado por mejorar su relación de trabajo mediante actividades como las siguientes: a) reuniones semanales del Secretario General Adjunto de la Oficina y la Directora Ejecutiva de la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo; b) reuniones complementarias de coordinación mensuales entre ambas oficinas; c) intercambio de notas informativas sobre cuestiones y actividades de interés común entre los jefes de las dos oficinas; y d) una visita conjunta de los jefes de ambas oficinas a un Estado Miembro.

63. El Consejo de Seguridad, en su resolución 2395 \(2017\), encomendó a la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo y a la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo que redactaran, a más tardar el 30 de marzo de 2018, un informe conjunto en el que se establecieran medidas prácticas que deberían adoptarse para asegurar la incorporación de las recomendaciones y el análisis de la Dirección Ejecutiva del Comité contra el Terrorismo en la labor de la Oficina, para su examen por el Comité contra el Terrorismo, así como por la Asamblea General, en el contexto del examen de la Estrategia Global contra el Terrorismo. El informe presentado se incluye en el anexo IV.

64. En 2017 y 2018, varias entidades de las Naciones Unidas suscribieron asimismo marcos bilaterales de asociación estratégica y memorandos de entendimiento para reforzar la coordinación de su labor. Entre estos acuerdos cabe mencionar un memorando de entendimiento entre la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo y el PNUD y un marco de asociación entre la Oficina del Estado de Derecho y las Instituciones de Seguridad del Departamento de Operaciones de Mantenimiento de la Paz y la UNODC.

65. Una mayor coordinación y coherencia de las actividades de las Naciones Unidas en la esfera de la lucha contra el terrorismo también permitirá aprovechar mejor el sistema de las Naciones Unidas para aumentar la repercusión sobre el terreno. Los Estados Miembros cada vez solicitan más apoyo, y el enfoque de las Naciones Unidas se basa en la demanda. Aunque las operaciones de mantenimiento de la paz no pueden asumir mandatos antiterroristas, es necesario seguir desarrollando la capacidad de contrarrestar el terrorismo y prevenir el extremismo violento. Ahora bien, las Naciones Unidas no pueden prestar un apoyo antiterrorista efectivo a las actividades de los Estados Miembros en situaciones de conflicto si no tienen un mandato claro para hacerlo.

VI. Forjar nuevas alianzas internacionales contra el terrorismo

66. En los últimos dos años, la lucha contra el terrorismo se ha centrado en la amenaza que el EIIL y sus asociados representan para la paz y la seguridad internacionales. Aunque el EIIL ha sufrido grandes derrotas militares en el Iraq y Siria, todavía sigue constituyendo, junto con otros grupos terroristas, una amenaza transnacional. El Secretario General ha decidido que una de sus grandes prioridades sea mejorar el apoyo que se presta a los esfuerzos de Estados Miembros por aplicar la Estrategia Global contra el Terrorismo y las distintas resoluciones del Consejo de Seguridad sobre la prevención y la lucha antiterrorista. Para hacer frente a este desafío mundial contra nuestras comunidades, también es urgente que surja un nuevo espíritu de cooperación entre los Estados Miembros.

67. Resulta esencial no solo mantener, sino también reforzar, la determinación y unidad de todos los Estados Miembros contra la amenaza terrorista. Es necesario forjar nuevas alianzas internacionales contra el terrorismo para hacer realidad la visión compartida de los Estados Miembros, que se plasmó en la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo, y lograr una verdadera repercusión sobre el terreno. Las alianzas podrían centrarse en dos objetivos: el primero, insistir con firmeza en la aplicación del marco jurídico internacional vigente contra el terrorismo como medio para consolidar la capacidad nacional y mejorar la cooperación práctica entre los Estados Miembros; el segundo, que los Estados Miembros complementen las actividades antiterroristas en curso haciendo un mayor esfuerzo por fomentar la resiliencia de sus sociedades.

68. Con la firma del Pacto Mundial de Coordinación de la Lucha Antiterrorista de las Naciones Unidas se pretende abandonar el antiguo marco para promover una nueva alianza de las Naciones Unidas con un marco de coordinación más eficaz que permita coordinar mejor la labor del sistema de las Naciones Unidas sobre la lucha antiterrorista y aumentar su coherencia. El Secretario General exhorta a todas las entidades signatarias del Pacto de Coordinación a cumplirlo para que las Naciones Unidas puedan prestar un mejor apoyo a las iniciativas de los Estados Miembros.

69. La aplicación integral de la Estrategia de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo es una de las claves para aumentar la eficacia de la lucha antiterrorista. El Secretario General pidió que se impulsara la diplomacia preventiva cuando tomó posesión de su cargo el año pasado, y hay que reconocer que la prevención de los conflictos y el fomento del desarrollo sostenible son esenciales para la lucha contra el terrorismo, y viceversa. La disuasión también debe ser un elemento esencial de esa lucha, y los Estados Miembros han de velar por que los terroristas bien adiestrados que hayan decidido viajar para participar en conflictos y cometer atrocidades sean enjuiciados con arreglo a la legislación interna cuando regresen a su país de origen.

70. Las iniciativas sostenibles de lucha contra el terrorismo deben vincularse con la labor de las Naciones Unidas en pro de la paz y el desarrollo sostenibles. Este enfoque integral también implica crear sociedades más resilientes. El terrorismo prospera en lugares cuyas instituciones son débiles, por lo que hay que centrarse en consolidar las instituciones y promover, en particular, el objetivo de desarrollo sostenible 16 a ese respecto.

71. Por último, la sostenibilidad también depende del efecto que se consiga. Es importante que todas las entidades de las Naciones Unidas que participan en la formulación y ejecución de las intervenciones destinadas a contrarrestar el terrorismo y prevenir el extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo demuestren que esas intervenciones tienen efectos cuantificables y logran resultados en los países donde se ejecutan. Resulta imprescindible contar con un sólido marco de seguimiento y evaluación para medir los progresos y evaluar los resultados basado en un buen diseño de las actividades e intervenciones.

Observaciones y recomendaciones

72. Los Estados Miembros deben actuar partiendo del consenso de que el terrorismo no tiene justificación posible y que es necesario prevenir y contrarrestar todas sus formas y manifestaciones. El daño que causan los actos terroristas a personas, comunidades, países enteros y la humanidad en su conjunto es inaceptable. Los Estados Miembros deben cumplir sus obligaciones internacionales y asegurarse de que ningún terrorista, sin excepción, pueda obtener fondos, reclutar adeptos o conseguir armas, cobijo u otros recursos, de plena conformidad con sus obligaciones en virtud de las resoluciones pertinentes del Consejo de Seguridad.

73. La comunidad internacional ha avanzado mucho en su lucha contra el terrorismo desde que se aprobó la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo. Una de las claves para que las actividades antiterroristas sean más eficaces es centrarse en los aspectos preventivos de la Estrategia. Una mayor coordinación y coherencia de las actividades de las Naciones Unidas en la esfera de la lucha contra el terrorismo también permitirá aprovechar mejor el sistema de las Naciones Unidas para aumentar la repercusión sobre el terreno.

74. Por fortuna, ya existen varios mecanismos bilaterales, regionales y mundiales en los que participan múltiples instancias, incluida la sociedad civil, y que contribuyen a la lucha contra el terrorismo. Hay que reforzar, ampliar y, cuando sea necesario, complementar esos mecanismos, de conformidad con el derecho internacional, para asegurar el intercambio sistemático de información, la celebración de consultas e intercambios periódicos y, en la medida de lo posible, la acción conjunta. Es esencial que los Estados Miembros vecinos concierten acuerdos bilaterales que permitan una colaboración estrecha y proactiva.

75. Como parte de su función de desarrollo de la capacidad, la Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo y las entidades del Pacto Mundial de Coordinación de la Lucha Antiterrorista deben facilitar y prestar asistencia para la creación de capacidad a los Estados Miembros que la soliciten. Hay que insistir con firmeza en la aplicación, y es fundamental ayudar a los Estados Miembros que lo soliciten a aumentar y mejorar su capacidad para prevenir y contrarrestar el terrorismo. La Oficina continuará esforzándose por lograr una mayor repercusión, que sea sostenible y demostrable, incluso mediante intervenciones integradas sobre el terreno y las actividades de seguimiento y evaluación.

76. Es imprescindible vincular las iniciativas regionales y bilaterales mediante herramientas y plataformas mundiales. Los Estados Miembros deben utilizar urgentemente el marco y los instrumentos que ofrece INTERPOL para mejorar la cooperación internacional en las actividades policiales antiterroristas. El Secretario General invita a los Estados Miembros a que respalden su iniciativa de convocar la Primera Conferencia de Alto Nivel de las Naciones Unidas de Jefes de Organismos Antiterroristas de los Estados Miembros, que se celebrará en Nueva York los días 28 y 29 de junio de 2018, y a que aprovechen esa oportunidad para forjar nuevas alianzas, en particular estableciendo nuevos cauces de comunicación, a fin de mejorar el intercambio rápido y seguro de información vital entre los Estados Miembros y dentro de ellos. También podría mantenerse este nivel de cooperación creando una red mundial de coordinadores nacionales de la lucha antiterrorista bajo los auspicios de las Naciones Unidas.

77. Pese a las derrotas militares sufridas por el EIIL en el Iraq y Siria, no hay tiempo para caer en la autocomplacencia. El retorno y la reubicación de los combatientes terroristas extranjeros es un fenómeno de alcance mundial y es necesario abordar todo el ciclo vital de esos combatientes. A este respecto, el Secretario General exhorta a los Estados Miembros a que contrarresten la amenaza cambiante que suponen los combatientes terroristas extranjeros aplicando medidas para mejorar la seguridad de las fronteras, el intercambio de información y la justicia penal, como se dispone en las resoluciones pertinentes del Consejo de Seguridad, incluida la resolución 2396 \(2017\). Asimismo, alienta a los Estados Miembros a que participen en los proyectos pertinentes enmarcados en el plan de las Naciones Unidas para el desarrollo de la capacidad de hacer frente a la afluencia de combatientes terroristas extranjeros, elaborado siguiendo la recomendación hecha en la declaración de la Presidencia del Consejo de Seguridad de 29 de mayo de 2015 (S/PRST/2015/11).

78. En estrecha colaboración con las principales instancias que trabajan en la investigación y el desarrollo de nuevas tecnologías, los Estados Miembros pueden utilizar el foro universal que ofrecen las Naciones Unidas para intercambiar información sobre enfoques innovadores y prepararse para los desafíos y oportunidades que entrañan las nuevas tecnologías en la prevención y lucha antiterrorista. La Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo está dispuesta a facilitar ese diálogo mundial para impedir que se aprovechen las nuevas tecnologías con fines terroristas. Por su parte, los Estados Miembros deben establecer alianzas público-privadas con empresas y sectores industriales para luchar contra el terrorismo, especialmente para combatir su financiación, proteger los objetivos vulnerables y las infraestructuras vitales y evitar el uso indebido de las nuevas tecnologías.

79. La comunidad internacional no logrará prevenir el extremismo violento cuando conduzca al terrorismo a menos que aproveche el idealismo, la creatividad y la energía de los jóvenes y otras personas que se sienten marginadas. Los planes nacionales de desarrollo y la cooperación internacional para el desarrollo deben dar prioridad absoluta al empleo, la educación y la formación profesional de los jóvenes. Aunque es esencial crear este tipo de oportunidades, los Estados Miembros y las Naciones Unidas también deben esforzarse más por escuchar, atraer e inspirar a los 1.800 millones de jóvenes que hay en el mundo. Pero esta colaboración no debe ser simbólica ni limitarse a una tarea más de la lista que hay que completar.

80. El terrorismo niega y destruye los derechos humanos, por lo que la lucha contra él no surtirá efecto si no se protegen esos derechos. Las leyes y políticas antiterroristas deben proteger los derechos humanos y el estado de derecho, incluidos los derechos de las víctimas del terrorismo. La proclamación del 21 de agosto como Día Internacional de Conmemoración y Homenaje a las Víctimas del Terrorismo pone de relieve el compromiso de la comunidad internacional de solidarizarse con las víctimas y procurar que se reconozcan sus derechos. Es fundamental que los Estados Miembros, además de garantizar los derechos de las víctimas del terrorismo, les proporcionen un apoyo sostenido. El Secretario General los alienta a que compartan más información sobre sus programas y políticas nacionales de asistencia a las víctimas con el Grupo de Trabajo sobre el Apoyo a las Víctimas del Terrorismo y la Divulgación de su Situación del Equipo Especial sobre la Ejecución de la Lucha contra el Terrorismo y a que utilicen el Portal de Apoyo a las Víctimas del Terrorismo.

Por su parte, las víctimas también desempeñan un papel crucial en las estrategias o planes de acción para contrarrestar el terrorismo.

81. La Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo continúa incorporando la perspectiva de género como cuestión transversal en todas sus esferas de responsabilidad. Con el apoyo de un proyecto del Centro de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo sobre la incorporación de la perspectiva de género, la Oficina se ha esforzado por aumentar la capacidad de todo el personal para integrar la perspectiva de género en su labor, concienciar sobre la importancia de la integración de las cuestiones de género y la participación de la mujer y desarrollar herramientas programáticas que promuevan la igualdad de género y el empoderamiento de las mujeres. El Secretario General insta a todas las entidades programáticas de las Naciones Unidas a que se comprometan a alcanzar la meta establecida en su informe sobre las mujeres y la paz y la seguridad (S/2015/716).

82. Las solicitudes de asistencia para la lucha contra el terrorismo que presentan los Estados Miembros están creciendo de manera exponencial. Teniendo en cuenta que el mandato incluye la creación de capacidad en los Estados Miembros de todo el mundo, resulta difícil satisfacer las expectativas y la demanda cada vez mayor con los escasos recursos del presupuesto ordinario. La Oficina de Lucha contra el Terrorismo necesita recursos sostenibles, previsibles y diversificados. Por ello, el Secretario General exhorta a los Estados Miembros a que proporcionen a la nueva Oficina y a sus asociados en el nuevo Pacto Mundial de Coordinación de la Lucha Antiterrorista de las Naciones Unidas más recursos financieros y técnicos para que las Naciones Unidas puedan responder eficazmente a la creciente demanda de asistencia para el desarrollo de la capacidad de los Estados Miembros y las organizaciones regionales.

83. El Secretario General aguarda con interés el próximo examen de la Asamblea General sobre la Estrategia Global contra el Terrorismo y la posterior celebración de la Conferencia de Alto Nivel de las Naciones Unidas de Jefes de Organismos Antiterroristas de los Estados Miembros, en la que espera puedan forjarse nuevas alianzas multilaterales basadas en medidas prácticas. En este sentido, alienta a los Estados Miembros a que aprovechen plenamente el potencial de las Naciones Unidas para ayudar a fomentar y armonizar la cooperación multilateral.

84. El Secretario General pide también que se mejore la metodología, el contenido y la repercusión de la labor colectiva de los Estados Miembros y de las Naciones Unidas, que debe despolitizarse para que la Estrategia Global de las Naciones Unidas contra el Terrorismo surta el efecto deseado sobre el terreno. Por consiguiente, hace un llamamiento a los Estados Miembros para que el resultado del proceso de examen de la Estrategia Global sea consensuado. Si la Asamblea General aprueba una resolución basada en un firme consenso, transmitirá a los terroristas de todo el mundo el contundente mensaje de que el mundo permanece unido en su determinación de acabar con esta lacra.

Annex I Supplementary information: development of the normative and legal framework

The 19 international legal instruments consist of: Convention on Offences and Certain Other Acts Committed on Board Aircraft, 1963; Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft, 1970; Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Civil Aviation, 1971; Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts of Violence at Airports Serving International Civil Aviation, 1988; Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes against Internationally Protected Persons, including Diplomatic Agents, 1973; International Convention against the Taking of Hostages, 1979; Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, 1980; Amendment to the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, 2005; Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation, 1988; Protocol to the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation, 2005; Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Fixed Platforms Located on the Continental Shelf, 1988; Protocol to the Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Fixed Platforms located on the Continental Shelf, 2005; Convention on the Marking of Plastic Explosives for the Purpose of Detection, 1991; International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings, 1997; International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism, 1999; International Convention for the Suppression of Acts of Nuclear Terrorism, 2005; Convention on the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Relating to International Civil Aviation 2010; Protocol Supplementary to the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft 2010.

Although the General Assembly adopted a number of terrorism-related resolutions and declarations in the past, an important milestone was the 1994 Declaration on Measures to Eliminate International Terrorism (A/RES/49/60). Following a report by my predecessor in May 2006, “Uniting against Terrorism: recommendations for a global counter-terrorism strategy”, the General Assembly arrived at a consensus resolution on “The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy” on 8 September 2006. The Strategy has been reviewed biennially since then. Additionally, the General Assembly has adopted 55 resolutions since 2006 which have addressed different aspects of terrorism, such as the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism; mandates of specialized United Nations bodies such as the United Nations CTITF and UNCCT; and preventing the acquisition by terrorists of radioactive materials and of weapons of mass destruction.

The Security Council initially used its sanctions regime to address terrorism, such as the 1999 adoption of resolution 1267 and 1269 aimed at the Taliban in Afghanistan and later, Al-Qaida and related groups. Subsequent Council resolutions such as resolutions 1373, 1540 and 1624, have strengthened the legal framework for preventing and combatting terrorism. Since 2013, the Council has enacted further resolutions, often invoking Chapter VII, to address new types of terrorist threats. These include, among others, SCR 2133 (2014) which addressed the issues of kidnapping and hostage-taking by terrorists, and SCR 2170 (2014) and 2178 (2014) on suppressing the flow of Foreign Terrorist Fighters (FTFs), financing and other support to terrorist groups in Iraq and Syria.

Additionally, SCR 2178 (2014) addressed for the first time the need to counter violent extremism conducive to terrorism. SCR 2195 (2014) called for international action to prevent terrorists from benefiting from transnational organized crime. Similarly, in 2015, the Council adopted SCR 2199 (2015), aimed to prevent terrorist groups in Iraq and Syria from benefiting from trade in oil, antiquities and hostages, and from receiving donations. SCR 2242 (2015) outlined sweeping actions to improve implementation of its landmark women, peace and security agenda, covering its work on countering terrorism violent extremism conducive to terrorism. In SCR 2253 (2015), the Security Council expanded and strengthened its Al-Qaida sanctions framework to include a focus on ISIL, and outlined efforts to dismantle its funding and support channels. SCR 2309 (2016) addressed the issue of terrorist threats to civil aviation. SCR 2341 (2017) outlined new measures to protect critical infrastructure, while SCR 2354 (2017) focused on countering terrorist narratives. SCR 2368 (2017) renewed and updated the 1267/1989/2253 ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions Regime.

In SCR 2370 (2017), the Security Council strengthened measures to prevent terrorists from acquiring weapons, while SCR 2379 (2017) addressed the accountability for crimes committed by ISIL in Iraq. SCR 2388 (2017) focused on disrupting human trafficking carried out by terrorist groups and SCR 2395 (2017) renewed the mandate of the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate for a further four years. SCR 2396 (2017) addressed the evolving threat from foreign terrorist fighters through measures on border security, information-sharing and criminal justice. Other key United Nations bodies, such as the ECOSOC and the Human Rights Council, also contributed to the Organization's work on counter-terrorism during this period.

Annex II

Supplementary information: activities of United Nations entities in support of the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy

Many CTITF entities actively work to implement the four pillars of the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy. This annex highlights some of the key activities these entities have carried out over the last two years.

Pillar 1: Measures to address conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism

Pillar I of the Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy concerns measures to address conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism, such as preventing and resolving conflicts, reducing social exclusion and marginalization, and promoting dialogue, tolerance and understanding among civilizations, cultures and religions.

Conflict prevention and resolution

The Department of Political Affairs (DPA) is the operational arm for much of my good offices, preventive diplomacy and mediation work. This work is perhaps best exemplified by my special envoys, advisers and representatives, whether they lead regional political offices, regional strategies or are dispatched from Headquarters. Country-specific field-based missions, be they political or peacekeeping missions, led respectively by DPA and DPKO, also undertake preventive work as they look to identify and address possible triggers for a relapse or an escalation of conflict. For example, the United Nations Assistance Mission in Iraq has continued to promote inclusive political dialogue and national reconciliation towards a united, stable and peaceful Iraq, which addresses the needs of marginalized groups. DPKO and DPA are currently examining how peace operations should adapt to complex conflict environments where both terrorist and criminal groups are present.

Where the United Nations has neither an envoy nor a mission, Resident Coordinators and the United Nations Country Teams assist Member States, at their request, in addressing emerging challenges. The Joint DPA-UNDP Programme on Building National Capacities for Conflict Prevention supports local capacity building in this vein. UNDP and several United Nations agencies, funds and programmes carry out a wide range of prevention activities aimed at addressing the root causes of conflict. My Human Rights Up Front initiative has at its core a strong focus on prevention of large-scale human rights violations, which are often correlated with an increased risk of conflict.

Preventing violent extremism conducive to terrorism

In the Horn of Africa, UNDP has implemented projects to build community resilience in Kenya and Tanzania by supporting the development of public and religious institutions and investing in youth-led organizations, movements and networks. In Jordan, UNDP organized an inter-religious dialogue in November 2016, which brought together more than 100 participants from 25 countries to discuss the instrumental role of religious leaders and religious institutions in enhancing diversity, tolerance and social cohesion to prevent violent extremism conducive to terrorism. In Kyrgyzstan, UNDP is working with social workers and local administrations to increase their responsiveness to women and girls at risk of radicalization.

UNODC, UNOCT and CTED have jointly developed a project on Managing Violent Extremist Offenders and Preventing Radicalization to Violence in Prisons. This project involved the publication of a comprehensive handbook for prison staff on managing the risk of radicalization in prisons and will soon start providing technical assistance to pilot countries. Specific objectives of the project include fostering cooperation among relevant national authorities, strengthening prison safety and security and advising on prison-based disengagement programmes.

In September 2017, UNDP published a study on “The Journey to Extremism in Africa: Drivers, Incentives and the Tipping Point for Recruitment”, which was based on interviews with 718 individuals from Cameroon, Kenya, Niger, Nigeria, Somalia and Sudan. UNDP, UNOCT and many other United Nations entities continue to support the development of inclusive and comprehensive national and regional Plans of Action to prevent violent extremism, based on national ownership and reflecting local, regional and national contexts.

UN Women has highlighted the important role of women in preventing violent extremism as and when conducive to terrorism. It is implementing research projects to explore the factors behind women’s radicalization and mobilization in East Africa, the Sahel, Central Asia, the Balkans and South and Southeast Asia. UN Women also supports women’s organizations and civil society actors to strengthen partnerships with government to enhance women’s economic empowerment and promote women’s participation in the development and implementation of strategies and measures to prevent violent extremism conducive to terrorism.

Promoting dialogue, tolerance and understanding

The UN Alliance of Civilizations (UNAOC) has continued its efforts to promote interreligious and intercultural dialogue and mutual understanding. For example, it partnered with the European Union and the United Nations Regional Information Centre in Brussels to organize a symposium on “Hate Speech Against Migrants and Refugees in the Media” in January 2017, within the framework of the UNOAC #SpreadNoHate campaign. UNESCO is spearheading the International Decade for the Rapprochement of Cultures (2013–2022), engaging a variety of actors in intercultural and interreligious dialogue to strengthen tolerance, mutual understanding and respect, to promote diversity and inclusion as strengths for all societies.

In July 2017, the United Nations Office on Genocide Prevention and the Responsibility to Protect launched the “Plan of Action for Religious Leaders and Actors to Prevent Incitement to Violence that Could Lead to Atrocity Crimes”, which made detailed recommendations to prevent and counter incitement to violence, enhance dialogue and collaboration, and contribute to building peaceful, just and inclusive societies.

Countering terrorist narratives

The CTITF Inter-Agency Working Group on Communications has developed capacity-building and technical assistance projects related to countering terrorist narratives when requested by Member States. For example, UNOCT is implementing a project on Preventing Violent Extremism through Strategic Communications which led to the development of the United Nations Strategic Communications Approach to Preventing Violent Extremism, which includes key recommendations and guidance on how United Nations entities should communicate about violent extremism using United Nations values as a foundation for effective alternative narratives that resonate at the local level.

CTED has promoted the adoption of “Tech Against Terrorism”, an initiative to support the ICT industry tackle terrorist exploitation of the Internet, while respecting human rights. The initiative was launched in 2017 and was subsequently recognized by Security Council resolution 2395 \(2017\) and 2396 \(2017\).

The Department of Public Information has used its traditional and digital media multilingual platforms, its global network of United Nations Information Centres and its array of outreach partners to raise global awareness and encourage support for fostering understanding and non-violence. These activities were often linked to the commemoration of United Nations international days and observances such as the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, the International Day of Peace and the International Day for Tolerance.

Preventing violence against women and girls

The United Nations condemns all forms of violence against women. In December 2016, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict produced a report highlighting the systematic and widespread use of sexual violence as a tactic of terrorism by ISIL. This report presented preliminary information that can serve as a basis for the consideration of listing of individuals, and deepening knowledge and understanding of the systematic use of sexual violence as a tactic of terrorism and its links with trafficking in persons. Following the signing by the United Nations and Iraq of a Joint Communiqué on the prevention of and response to conflict-related sexual violence in Iraq in December 2016, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict has been supporting Iraq in its efforts in developing an implementation plan to address this issue.

Pillar II: Measures to prevent and combat terrorism

United Nations entities have increased their engagement with Member States on a number of Pillar II topics, especially enhancing law enforcement and border controls and countering the financing of terrorism.

Law enforcement and border control

Over the past two years, the Security Council has adopted a number of resolutions containing provisions on law enforcement and border control in the context of counter-terrorism. However, fewer than a third of Member States have implemented Advance Passenger Information systems. To address this, UNOCT, CTED and range of United Nations entities delivered a project on Advance Passenger Information for 43 Member States that are most affected by the foreign terrorist fighter phenomenon. Many of these Member States are now implementing national Advance Passenger Information Systems that are fully compatible with their border management infrastructures as well as international standards and obligations.

ICAO has worked with Member States and industry groups to ensure the implementation of international civil aviation standards and recommended practices and policies to prevent acts of unlawful interference and enhance global civil aviation security, facilitation and related border security matters.

ODA has continued to support the efforts of Member States to prevent the acquisition of small arms and light weapons by terrorists and terrorist groups. It has implemented a pilot project in the Lake Chad Basin, which provided technical assistance to Cameroon, Chad, Niger and Nigeria to support and strengthen their legal and judicial frameworks against small arms and light weapons.

The 1267 Committee adopted a range of recommendations of the Monitoring Team aimed at improving the operational effectiveness of the 1267 and 1988 sanctions regimes. Both Committees have continued to list, review and delist individuals and entities that fulfil the criteria of the two regimes, thus ensuring that the two sanctions lists are appropriately targeted to respond to the evolving threat.

Combating the financing of terrorism

CTED continued to strengthen its partnerships with international organizations, including the Financial Action Task Force (FATF), to promote the effective implementation of international counter-financing of terrorism standards, especially on freezing terrorist assets, pursuant to Security Council resolutions 1373 \(2001\), 2178 \(2014\) and 2253 \(2015\). In August 2016, CTED launched a database of national authorities responsible for asset-freezing, aimed at facilitating third-party requests for the freezing of terrorist assets. During 2017, CTED engaged with the private sector to help assess the terrorism-financing risks posed by new payment products and services.

UNODC further strengthened the ability of Member States, including Afghanistan, Algeria, Egypt, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Morocco, South Africa, Tajikistan, Tunisia, and Uzbekistan, to combat the financing of terrorism under its Global Programme against Money-Laundering, Proceeds of Crime and the Financing of Terrorism. UNODC has recently completed the development of six operational courses on countering the financing of terrorism, which have been designed for intelligence, police, financial investigation units, prosecutors and investigators.

Preventing and responding to CBRN and WMD attacks

The reporting period saw growing concerns about the threat from terrorist use of chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear (CBRN) weapons.

OPCW continued its comprehensive and long-standing programmes to support Member States to prevent and respond to an attack involving chemical weapons through the full and effective implementation of the Chemical Weapons Convention. This included providing training for border and customs officials to detect the illicit traffic of chemical materials. To improve the ability of the United Nations system to respond to terrorist CBRN attacks, the CTITF Working Group on preventing and responding to WMD attacks, co-chaired by IAEA and OPCW, implemented a project to ensure effective inter-agency interoperability and coordinated communication in the event of chemical and/or biological attacks.

The Office for Disarmament Affairs continued to support the efforts of the 1540 Committee to strengthen the implementation of Security Council Resolution 1540 by Member States. In this regard, it has organized or supported more than 50 events.

Pillar III: Measures to build States' capacity to prevent and combat terrorism and to strengthen the role of the United Nations system in this regard

Pillar III recognizes that Member States need to have the capacity to prevent and combat terrorism, and that international assistance in that regard must be provided in a coordinated and coherent manner. It specifically envisages a strong role for the United Nations in the provision and coordination of such coherent assistance in all four pillars of the Global Strategy.

UNOCT's Integrated Assistance in Countering Terrorism (I-ACT) initiative is specifically designed specifically to provide holistic assistance to a requesting Member State by strengthening coordination and coherence among all United Nations entities working in that country. The I-ACT initiative in the Sahel region is implementing nine projects covering priority issues including preventing violent extremism conducive to terrorism, border management and enhancing the rule of law and criminal justice. In Mali, the I-ACT initiative has organized workshops to enhance the capacity of Malian criminal justice and law enforcement officials to strengthen judicial cooperation and develop strategies to understand the process of radicalization that leads to terrorism.

The United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre (UNCCT) has completed 15 capacity-building projects and implemented an additional 30 projects to assist Member States, at their request, to implement the Global Strategy. The General Assembly recognized the important work carried out by UNCCT in its landmark resolution 71/291, which established UNOCT and transferred the Centre into the newly created Office. UNCCT is focused on ensuring that its programming is responsive to the emerging and evolving threats of terrorism and delivers genuine impact in the field. For example, it has expanded its programming to include cyber issues; preventing and responding to WMD terrorist attacks, and promoting the human rights based treatment of child returnees. It has also consolidated disparate projects into larger multi-year programmes for enhanced impact and sustainability.

Assisting the implementation of counter-terrorism legislation and enhancing the capacity of criminal justice officials and law enforcement officers

UNODC is helping to implement the Airport Communication Project, which aims to create secure, real-time operational communication between participating international airports in Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean in order to disrupt the various manifestations of transnational organized crime and terrorism in international airports. As a result of the project, the Sahel Joint Airport Interdiction Task Forces intercepted a number of foreign terrorist fighters travelling to and from armed conflict zones.

Combatting the evolving threat from foreign terrorist fighters

The United Nations has continued to adopt an “All-of-UN” approach to provide capacity-building assistance to Member States to counter the flow of foreign terrorist fighters. The United Nations Foreign Terrorist Fighters Capacity Building Implementation Plan addresses the full life-cycle of foreign terrorist fighters, including projects related to prosecution, rehabilitation and reintegration to support Member States in their efforts to address returnees. New projects have also been added which specifically address women and children. Of the 50 projects in the plan, 35 are now being implemented by 13 CTITF entities.

UNODC is delivering a major initiative to strengthen national legal frameworks and the capacity of criminal justice and law enforcement officials to respond to the threat posed by foreign terrorist fighters in the Middle East, North Africa and South-Eastern Europe. During this reporting period, this initiative has produced a manual on foreign terrorist fighters for judicial training institutes in South Eastern Europe and has established multi-agency task forces for judicial cooperation on terrorist cases in the Middle East and North Africa region.

In May 2016, UNICRI and INTERPOL organized an International Workshop in Turin on Responding to the Threat of Returning Foreign Terrorist Fighters by Promoting and Implementing Rehabilitation and Reintegration Strategies. The workshop presented real case scenarios to simulate operational situations and identify potential gaps and solutions in relation to the threat of foreign terrorist fighters.

The United Nations Assistance Mission in Somalia has provided advice to the Federal Government on implementing a national programme for the treatment and handling of disengaged combatants. In October 2017, it completed a project which provided job training to 1,000 disengaged fighters and community members in Mogadishu, Baidoa, Kismaayo and Beletweyne.

The CTITF Working Group on adopting a Gender Sensitive Approach to Preventing and Countering Terrorism and Violent Extremism has designed a project on the gender dimensions of the returning foreign terrorist fighter challenge, which will provide a concrete tool for Member States on the gender dimensions of rehabilitation and reintegration procedures and mechanisms.

Pillar IV: Measures to ensure the protection of human rights and the rule of law while combating terrorism

Protection of human rights

Country visits by the Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism between 2016–2018 included Sri Lanka (2017), Tunisia (2017) and Saudi Arabia (2017). The Special Rapporteur’s broader thematic reports have provided the means to remind, clarify and advise upon the legal obligations of Member States, as the methods and means of counter-terrorism and prevention of violent extremism conducive to terrorism try to keep pace with the changing technological, territorial, and behavioural patterns of terrorist actors and organizations.

The CTITF Working Group on Promoting and Protecting Human Rights and the Rule of Law while Countering Terrorism, chaired by OHCHR, has begun implementing its global capacity-building project to support the integration of human rights in the counter-terrorism initiatives of security and law enforcement officials. Training sessions and engagement with senior government officials have taken place in Jordan, Iraq, Mali, Nigeria and Tunisia, with further trainings to take place in Cameroon in 2018. The Working Group has also published five reference guides, which provide practical guidance for national action on human rights-compliant counter-terrorism measures.

UNHCR continues to provide support to Member States in upholding international protection principles while addressing legitimate security concerns, including the proper registration of asylum seekers and refugees by border officials trained in relevant aspects of security, refugee, and human rights protection.

Support for victims of terrorism

The CTITF Working Group on Victims of Terrorism has promoted a number of resources to support the victims of terrorism. This includes the Victims of Terrorism Support Portal, which is dedicated to and highlights the importance of those individuals around the world that have been attacked, injured, traumatized or lost their lives during terrorist attacks. In 2017, DPI produced a documentary, “Surviving Terrorism: Victims’ Voices from Norway”, featuring two victims of the 2011 terrorist attack in that country to raise awareness of the importance of supporting victims of terrorism.

Supplementary Information: Matrix of UN Counter-Terrorism Projects and Activities

This summary matrix of counter-terrorism projects, which United Nations entities under the CTITF framework are carrying out provides an overview of the range and breadth of counter-terrorism-related assistance of the United Nations. The global reach of these projects demonstrates the resourcefulness of United Nations entities and the opportunities available for pooling resources and synergies. As such, it serves as a valuable source of information for programming, monitoring and evaluating projects.

This matrix of projects and activities includes essential information on all United Nations Counter-Terrorism Projects and Activities being carried out or planned by CTITF entities. As of February 2018, CTITF entities have a total of 320 projects across the four pillars of the Strategy: 120 projects under Pillar I; 55 projects under Pillar II; 128 projects under Pillar III; and 17 projects under Pillar IV. The CTITF matrix shows that since the publication of the last report in 2016, the number of United Nations counter-terrorism projects and activities has grown under Pillars I and III in particular, which indicates that CTITF entities acknowledge the importance of addressing the conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism and to undertake necessary measures to build States' capacities to combat and prevent terrorism. Projects under Pillars II and IV have remained virtually the same in number since 2016.

Supplementary Information: The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact

I. Introduction

1. Attacks from terrorist and violent extremist groups are widespread in frequency and geographical scope, with victims coming from almost all Member States. In this context, the United Nations could support Member States efforts, at their request, to effectively respond to these challenges. A key United Nations goal in this regard is to support Member States in the implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy (A/RES/60/288) and its successive review resolutions, relevant Security Council resolutions, including Resolution 1373 \(2001\) and 1267 \(1999\) and their successive resolutions, and to further Member States' commitment to sustainable peace and sustainable development — which reinforce the values of the Charter of the United Nations.

2. The development and implementation of comprehensive counter-terrorism actions requires collaborative efforts among different government departments, agencies and relevant civil society partners. United Nations support to these efforts must be equally comprehensive and collaborative. Therefore, a common action approach is important for the United Nations to respond to Member States' requests. A similar comprehensive and collaborative approach is needed at the national, regional and global levels supporting transnational interaction between national bodies where possible.

3. The complex and evolving threat of terrorism and violent extremism demands an efficient, coherent and coordinated response by the United Nations, and Member States, which have the primary responsibility to address this threat in compliance with international law and their human rights obligations. In this regard, the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy (A/RES/60/288), its successive review resolutions, and the Secretary-General's Plan of Action to Prevent Violent Extremism (A/70/674-A/70/675) emphasize the importance of strengthening coordination and coherence between United Nations entities both at Headquarters and the field to effectively support Member States and regional and sub-regional organizations, at their request, to address the scourge of terrorism, in ways that are consistent with national strategies of Member States.

4. Upon assuming office in January 2017, the United Nations Secretary-General put a United Nations common action approach at the heart of his reform efforts of the UN peace and security architecture. In his report on the "Capability of the United Nations system to assist Member States in implementing the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy" (A/71/858) of April 2017, the Secretary-General emphasized that "given the evolving nature of the threat, the United Nations needs to adapt its action and continuously improve its counter-terrorism efforts."

5. In this context, it should be noted that the United Nations Security Council resolutions 1373 \(2001\), 1456\(2003\), 1624 \(2005\), 2178 \(2014\), 2341 \(2017\), 2354 \(2017\), 2368 \(2017\) and 2370 \(2017\), as well as Human Rights Council resolution 35/34 and General Assembly resolution 70/148 require that States must ensure that any measures taken to combat terrorism and prevent violent extremism, including incitement of and support for terrorist acts, comply with all of their obligations under international law, in particular international human rights law, refugee law, and humanitarian law, and that Security Council resolution 2242 \(2015\) "[c]alls for the greater integration by Member States and the United Nations of their agendas on women, peace and security, counter-terrorism and countering-violent extremism...."

6. It should also be noted that Security Council resolution 2395 \(2017\) “calls on UNOCT, all other relevant United Nations fund and programs, Member States, donors, and recipients to use [CTED’s] expert assessments as they design technical assistance and capacity-building efforts, including in furthering the balanced implementation of the [Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy] across all four of its pillars.”

7. In order to leverage the comparative advantages of the United Nations norm setting and convening authority to support Member States to address the evolving threat of terrorism, Member States have set up a number of General Assembly and Security Council mandated counter-terrorism bodies. On 15 June 2017, the General Assembly adopted resolution A/RES/71/291 on “Strengthening the capability of the United Nations system to assist Member States in implementing the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy” and established the UN Office of Counter-Terrorism (OCT) based on the Secretary-General’s proposal. The OCT, in collaboration with other United Nations entities, is now the lead counter-terrorism policy and coordination entity and one of the main capacity-building providers mandated by the General Assembly.

8. During the General Debate of the 72nd Regular Session of the General Assembly, Member States called for increased international cooperation and the strengthening of United Nations coordination and coherence efforts to effectively prevent and counter this challenge. On 16 November 2017, the Secretary-General announced in his speech on “Counter-terrorism and human rights: winning the fight while upholding our values” in London that he intends “to develop a new United Nations system-wide Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact,” underscoring how respect for human rights and the rule of law will secure long-term benefits in the fight against terrorism. This Compact is developed based on Member States’ emphasis on strengthening of coordination and coherence of the United Nations counter-terrorism efforts and a decision of the Secretary-General.

II. Definition

9. The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact (hereinafter the “Global Compact”) is an agreed framework between the Secretary-General and the heads of United Nations Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force entities [38 as of now]. It aims to strengthen a common action approach to coordination and coherence in the counter-terrorism and prevention of violent extremism (PVE) work of the United Nations system, and to strengthen support to Member States, at their request, in the implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, and other relevant United Nations resolutions and mandates, while ensuring compliance with international law, including international human rights law and, where applicable, international humanitarian law.

III. Coordination Framework

10. The institutional framework for the implementation of the Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact will be the following:

a. Membership

The UN Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact will be signed between the UN Secretary-General and Heads of United Nations Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force Member Entities. Entities having observer status within the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force will retain this status in the context of the Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact. Entities which are not currently Members of the CTITF can join the Compact in consultation with the Office of Counter-Terrorism.

b. The Global Compact Coordination Committee

The Global Compact Coordination Committee will be chaired by the Under-Secretary-General for Counter-Terrorism. The Counter-Terrorism Executive Directorate will have a seat in the Coordination Committee. The Committee will comprise the chairs and vice chairs of the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force Working Groups and advise on the development of a Compact programme of work and provide guidance on its implementation.

c. Support by the United Nations Office of Counter Terrorism

The United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism [OCT] will provide secretariat support to the Global Compact Coordination Committee.

d. Review of the Compact

The Compact member entities will review it every two years on the basis of the General Assembly biennial review resolution of the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy.

e. Status of the Compact

Nothing in this Compact shall be construed as creating an agency relationship or legal partnership or binding responsibility between the Entities involved. This Compact does not in any way interfere with, and is without prejudice to, any existing partnership frameworks, decision-making processes, or mandates of the Entities.

IV. Fundamental Objectives

11. Parties to this Compact commit to abide by and implement the following principles and objectives, without prejudice to their respective mandates, decisions and decision making processes and programmatic actions, to achieve stronger coordination and coherence of United Nations work in support of Member States' efforts to counter terrorism and prevent violent extremism, with respect for human rights and the rule of law as the fundamental basis. The implementation of these principles will be based on the balanced implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, premised on compliance with international human rights law, international humanitarian law and refugee law with an essential focus on gender equality and youth empowerment.

(a) A commitment to action-oriented collaboration to support implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, relevant UN General Assembly and Security Council and Human Rights Council resolutions and in response to requests by Member States, as compatible with each Entity's core mandate and without prejudice to the decisions and resolutions taken by the governing bodies of the Entities.

(b) A commitment that the UN's counter-terrorism and PVE efforts at UN Headquarters and in the field, in collaboration with UN Country Teams, are evidence-based, guided by the principle of national ownership and in line with UN Principles and Purposes under the Charter.

(c) A commitment to close cooperation to support the development of an effective common approach to counter-terrorism and PVE programs and projects both at Headquarters and field levels, taking a country by country approach, as well as at regional levels; such cooperation will be based on the comparative advantages of the Entities and their mandates, while reducing duplication and overlapping where possible between efforts of various Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force Entities in their delivery of technical assistance, and encouraging joint programming and implementation, coordinated participation at international conferences, forums and other counter-terrorism and PVE events. Any cooperation will be without prejudice to the mandates of respective Entities and taking into account the need to preserve humanitarian principles and humanitarian space in line with the Secretary-General's PVE Action Plan.

(d) A commitment to timely information-sharing, where possible, including on designing, programming, executing, delivering and impact assessment, as well as to the provision of feedback from programme/project designers, facilitators, the donor community, implementing agencies and recipients. This commitment is subject to any applicable rules of the Entity information sensitivity, classification and handling.

(e) A commitment to meaningful consultations within the UN system and with other relevant stakeholders, and to using the Working Groups as a core vehicle for the coordination and coherence of Entities' work under the overall umbrella of the Compact Coordination Committee, without prejudice to the mandates of respective Entities.

(f) A commitment to enhancing cooperation with intergovernmental organizations, as appropriate, in particular those with regional or sub-regional coverage, partnerships and expertise, in order to adapt technical assistance activities to the specific regional or national requirements and to avoid duplication with their actions.

(g) A commitment to developing and implementing joint or mutually-reinforcing capacity-building counter-terrorism and PVE programs and projects, while respecting and considering the impact of projects on the mandates of other entities, such as, ensuring that projects do no harm to local communities and preserve humanitarian space and principles, particularly where peace operations are deployed.

(h) A commitment to consider the establishment of a joint resource mobilization and outreach mechanism with donors who wish to support UN counter-terrorism work.

(i) A commitment to ensure that all UN counter-terrorism and PVE efforts at the country-level are aligned with relevant national development strategies, relevant UN policy objectives, such as those in the women and youth peace and security agendas, and where relevant, the UN Development Assistance Frameworks.

(j) A commitment that the UN's counter-terrorism and PVE efforts in the field will be supported by UN Headquarters through country specific or regional coordination efforts, which include conducting risk assessments to ensure that all projects are grounded in respect for international law, including international human rights law and, where relevant, international humanitarian law. This will entail the application of the Human Rights Due Diligence Policy to all UN assistance to non-UN security forces and institutions in the context of UN counter-terrorism and PVE efforts.

(k) A commitment by the Global Compact Coordination Committee and the OCT to ensure that in the implementation of this Global Compact the relevant mandates of Entities, their decision-making processes, as well as humanitarian principles, as applicable, are fully respected.

V. Implementation Framework

12. The Global Compact Coordination Committee, in consultation with the relevant Entities, will develop a two-year programme of work to support implementation of the biennial review resolution of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy in a balanced manner and in line with other relevant UN resolutions.
13. The United Nations Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force Working Groups will brief the Coordination Committee on a quarterly basis on the progress of the implementation of their respective work plans and issues of concern for the Coordination Committee and Working Groups.
14. The Under-Secretary-General for Counter-Terrorism will periodically brief UN Member States on the implementation of the Global Compact.
15. The United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism and relevant Entities will regularly brief the Coordination Committee on the latest counter-terrorism and prevention of violent extremism policy developments, and the Committee members will in turn brief their respective Working Groups.
16. The Working Groups, through their Chairs, will provide mid-year and end-of-Year progress reports to the Coordination Committee.
17. The Under-Secretary-General for Counter-Terrorism, in his capacity as chair of the Coordination Committee, will present an annual report on the implementation of the Global Compact to the Secretary-General.
18. The UN Office of Counter-Terrorism will prepare consolidated progress reports for the Coordination Committee based on inputs of the Working Group chairs.
19. The UN Office of Counter-Terrorism will maintain a matrix of all projects and relevant activities of Parties to the Global Compact by country and theme.
20. The UN Office of Counter-Terrorism will enhance the visibility of and communication about the work of Entities through the Compact.

VI. Monitoring and Evaluation

21. The Coordination Committee will develop a common monitoring and evaluation framework, as well as accompanying tools when relevant, with which to measure the overall impact of UN capacity building activities.

Annex IV

Supplementary information: Joint report of CTED and the UNOCT pursuant to paragraph 18 of Security Council resolution 2395 (2017)

A. Introduction

1. Requirement for joint report of CTED and the UNOCT pursuant to Security Council resolution 2395 (2017)

1. In its resolution 2395 (2017), the Security Council reaffirms that “terrorism in all forms and manifestations constitutes one of the most serious threats to international peace and security” and underlines the need to address conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism, as set forth in the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy (A/RES/60/288). The resolution also underscores the central role of the United Nations in efforts to counter terrorism and the importance of strong cooperation between the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate (CTED) and the United Nations Office of Counter Terrorism (UNOCT). In its paragraph 18, the resolution directs the two bodies “to draft a joint report by 30 March 2018 setting out practical steps to be taken to ensure the incorporation of CTED recommendations and analysis into UNOCT’s work, to be considered by the Counter-Terrorism Committee (CTC), as well as the General Assembly in the context of the Global Strategy review”.

2. Need for strengthened collaboration and cooperation

2. Security Council resolution 2395 (2017) highlights ways and areas for cooperation between CTED and UNOCT, reflecting the complementarity of the mandates of the two entities. The use of CTED’s neutral, expert assessments of the implementation of the relevant Security Council resolutions by Member States and its analytical work on emerging issues, trends, and developments in the design of technical assistance and capacity-building efforts by the UNOCT and other United Nations entities will not only further the balanced implementation of the Global Strategy across all four of its pillars, but also strengthen coherence across the United Nations system in support of Member States.

3. Terrorism in all its forms and manifestations constitutes one of the most serious threats to international peace and security. No cause and no grievance can justify any act of terrorism. The-Secretary General’s first reform initiative was to create UNOCT to provide strategic leadership of United Nations counter-terrorism efforts and ensure that countering terrorism is given due priority in the work of the Organization and that the important work on preventing violent extremism is firmly rooted in the Global Strategy. On 28 and 29 June 2018, the-Secretary-General will convene the High-level Conference of Heads of Counter-Terrorism Agencies of Member States, which will aim to enhance international counter-terrorism cooperation by facilitating operational and practical exchanges and consensus-building on key terrorism issues affecting Member States.

4. The Secretary-General has stressed the importance of enhancing coordination and coherence across the 38 Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force (CTITF)/Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact entities<sup>1</sup> participating in the 12 Working Groups<sup>2</sup> in order to ensure an “All-of-United Nations” approach to implementing all four pillars of the Global Strategy. He has signed the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Coordination Compact, which will strengthen system-wide cooperation on counter-terrorism issues throughout the United Nations. Effective cooperation between UNOCT and CTED is crucial to the coordination and coherence of United Nations counter-terrorism efforts. It also maximizes the comparative advantages of each entity and the complementarity of expertise, bringing added value through the sharing of information and ensuring a common foundation for United Nations support.

B. Overview of CTED and UNOCT mandates and cooperation

1. Mandates of UNOCT and CTED

5. CTED was established by Security Council resolution 1535 \(2004\) as a special political mission, responsible for assisting the Counter-Terrorism Committee to monitor, facilitate and promote Member States’ implementation of Security Council resolution 1373 \(2001\) and subsequent resolutions, decisions and presidential statements of the Council on counter-terrorism.<sup>3</sup> In its resolution 2395 \(2017\), the Council “underscores that neutral, expert assessment of the implementation of resolutions 1373 \(2001\), 1624, 2178 \(2014\) and other relevant resolutions, is the core function of CTED, and that the analysis and recommendations from these assessments are an invaluable aid to Member States in identifying and addressing gaps in implementation and capacity”. The resolution also describes the scope of CTED’s mandate, which encompasses country visits; assessments; analysis of emerging issues, trends and developments; and facilitation of technical assistance, and requests CTED to integrate gender as a cross-cutting issue throughout its activities and to integrate the impact of terrorism on children.

6. On 15 June 2017, the General Assembly adopted resolution A/RES/71/291, on “Strengthening the capability of the United Nations system to assist Member States in implementing the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy” and also established the UNOCT, in accordance with the report of the Secretary-General of 3 April 2017 (A/71/858), which defines the following five main functions for the Office:

- a) Provide leadership on the General Assembly counter-terrorism mandates entrusted to the Secretary-General from across the United Nations system;
- b) Enhance coordination and coherence across the 38 CTITF entities to ensure balanced implementation of the four pillars of the Global Strategy;

<sup>2</sup> The 12 CTITF Working Groups are: 1) Border Management and Law Enforcement Relating to Terrorism; 2) Countering the Financing of Terrorism; 3) Foreign Terrorist Fighters; (4) National and Regional Counter-Terrorism Strategies; 5) Preventing and Responding to Weapons of Mass Destruction Attacks; 6) Preventing Violent Extremism and Conditions Conducive to the Spread of Terrorism; 7) Promoting and Protecting Human Rights and the Rule of Law while Countering Terrorism; 8) Protection of Critical Infrastructure, including the Internet, Vulnerable Targets and Tourism Security; 9) Supporting and Highlighting Victims of Terrorism; 10) Legal and Criminal Justice Responses to Terrorism; 11) Gender-Sensitive Approach to Preventing and Countering Terrorism; and 12) Working Group on Communications.

<sup>3</sup> Security Council resolutions 1535 \(2004\), 1787 \(2007\), 1805 \(2008\), 1624 \(2005\), 1963 \(2010\), 2129 \(2013\), 2133 \(2014\), 2178 \(2014\), 2185 \(2014\), 2195 \(2015\), 2220 \(2015\), 2242 \(2015\), 2253 \(2015\), 2309 \(2016\), 2322 \(2016\), 2331 \(2016\), 2341 \(2017\), 2354 \(2017\), 2368 \(2017\), 2370 \(2017\), 2388 \(2017\), 2395 \(2017\), 2396 \(2017\).

- c) Strengthen the delivery of United Nations counter-terrorism capacity-building assistance to Member States;
- d) Improve visibility, advocacy and resource mobilization for United Nations counter-terrorism efforts; and
- e) Ensure that due priority is given to counter-terrorism across the United Nations system and that the important work on preventing violent extremism is firmly rooted in the Global Strategy.

7. During the general debate of the seventy-second session of the General Assembly, many Member States welcomed the establishment of UNOCT and called for increased international cooperation and the strengthening of United Nations coordination and coherence to effectively counter terrorism and prevent violent extremism. The Global Strategy and its fifth-review resolution (A/RES/70/291) also underscore the importance of strengthened coordination and coherence of United Nations counter-terrorism efforts. Security Council resolutions 2341 \(2017\), 2354 \(2017\), 2368 \(2017\), 2370 \(2017\), 2395 \(2017\) and 2396 \(2017\) also emphasize and encourage enhanced cooperation and coordination among relevant UN entities.

2. The use of CTED's analysis in the development and implementation of UNCCT projects

8. One of the key functions of UNOCT is to strengthen the delivery of United Nations counter-terrorism capacity-building assistance to Member States, at their request, to support the implementation of the Global Strategy, including through the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre (UNCCT).

9. UNOCT is one of the main counter-terrorism capacity-building providers of the United Nations. The assessments and analysis of CTED play an important role in the development and implementation of UNOCT projects. The work of CTED should feed into the standard project lifecycle of the UNOCT, where appropriate, which consists of seven steps: Idea; Analysis; Planning; Financing; Initiation; Implementation; and Evaluation. The idea for a UNOCT [UNCCT] capacity building project is always guided by the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, Member States' requests for capacity-building assistance, and CTED's assessments and analysis. Currently, the UNCCT 5-Year Programme (2016–2020), sets out the thematic areas the Centre is working on.

10. In implementing relevant projects, UNOCT may also rely on CTED's expertise, including to brief requesting Member States on the requirements for full implementation of the relevant Security Council resolutions.

11. UNCCT projects are fully funded by extra-budgetary contributions, its work is guided by relevant General Assembly resolutions, including A/RES/66/10 and A/RES/71/291, and aimed at contributing to the implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy and strengthening the delivery of United Nations capacity building assistance to Member States. Some of the voluntary contributions may be earmarked [by donors] for specific activities. UNCCT also assiduously avoids duplicating the efforts of other United Nations entities.

3. Good practices and steps taken since establishment of the UNOCT to strengthen cooperation within the UN system and with CTED

12. Security Council resolution 2395 \(2017\) notes the crucial role of CTED within the United Nations and its expertise in assessing counter-terrorism issues and in supporting the development and promotion of well-informed counter-terrorism responses and urges UNOCT and all other relevant United Nations bodies to take into account CTED's recommendations and analysis in the implementation of their programmes and mandates. It also calls on UNOCT, all other relevant United Nations funds and programmes, Member States, donors, and recipients to use CTED's expert assessments in their design of technical assistance and capacity-building efforts, including in furthering the balanced implementation of the Global Strategy across all four of its pillars".

13. In developing a methodology for strengthening cooperation, CTED and UNOCT are able to draw on examples in which the two Offices have worked together to develop shared products that highlight key areas in which capacity-building assistance is required. These include the Foreign Terrorist Fighters (FTF) Capacity-Building Implementation Plan (which relied on CTED's assessment of priority States and issues); the Advanced Passenger Information Programme (which incorporates CTED's expertise, advice and inputs throughout its implementation); and the ongoing exercise related to the Joint Programme of Action on Central Asia (JPoA) (which may prove to be a good practice). CTED has also contributed to the design and delivery of a UNOCT and UNODC project on addressing violent extremism in prisons and will support the project throughout its lifecycle. The UNOCT and CTED have also cooperated on the UNOCT's Integrated Assistance for Counter-Terrorism initiative in the Sahel region and worked closely on the development of regional counter-terrorism strategies.

14. Since the establishment of UNOCT, both bodies have made efforts to enhance their working relationship. Those efforts include: (i) weekly meetings of the Under-Secretary-General for UNOCT and the CTED Executive Director; (ii) monthly follow-up coordination meetings of the two Offices; (iii) exchange of informational notes by the two Heads of Office on issues and activities of common interest; and (iv) joint visit of the two Heads of Office to a Member State.

15. The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Compact should further enable coherent development and implementation of technical assistance projects aligned to CTED's assessments and analysis. UNOCT has already provided most Working Groups with seed money to support priority projects agreed by the participating entities.

C. Practical steps to be taken

16. Good progress has been made on enhancing coordinating and collaboration between the UNOCT and CTED since the creation of the UNOCT in 2017. To build on and deepen further the effective cooperation, CTED and the OCT identified the following practical steps:

1. Priority regions and areas for collaboration

a) CTED and the UNOCT will closely consult on States, regions and related thematic areas for technical assistance and capacity building purposes, to use CTED assessments and analytical work, including on emerging issues, trends and developments, to identify needs for technical assistance and capacity-building efforts, consistent with balanced implementation of the Global Strategy. Priority areas for collaboration will incorporate States on the annual list of visits of the Counter-Terrorism Committee, as well as States previously visited by the Committee. The two Offices will also provide each other with a list of annual activities. CTED and UNOCT will also keep each other informed of their follow-up activities.

b) UNOCT will help to advocate for the use of CTED's assessments and analysis within the context of the Working Groups and provide advocacy and other support to Working Group entities to implement projects that address priority technical assistance needs identified by CTED and endorsed by the targeted Member States;

c) UNOCT will ensure that CTED's assessments and expertise are fully considered in the implementation of the Integrated Assistance for Countering Terrorism initiative in current areas of focus (G5 Sahel, Mali and Nigeria) and in future initiatives; and

d) UNOCT will regularly provide CTED with an updated matrix of information on UNOCT projects in priority regions.

2. Country visits and follow-up

a) CTED will share recommendations and assessments from all country visits with UNOCT via a specially designed communication portal and other available means and procedures, except when requested by the assessed Member States to keep selected information confidential;

b) Where possible, UNOCT will participate in CTED visits to States included in the list approved by the Counter-Terrorism Committee;

c) UNOCT will inform CTED, in advance, about States to be visited, particularly those that have recently been visited or are scheduled to be visited by CTED, to facilitate the timely exchange of information; and, where possible, CTED will join UNOCT on its visits;

d) Following a visit, CTED and UNOCT will consult with a view to agreeing on areas in which UNOCT could provide technical assistance, capacity building, advocacy, or other support.

3. Joint outreach activities

a) Where possible, UNOCT and CTED will continue to organize joint briefings with the relevant donor community, including technical assistance providers, implementing agencies, and key stakeholders;

b) UNOCT and CTED will undertake, as necessary, joint resource mobilization on specific States, regions or needs; and coordinate with visited Member States to secure technical assistance on recommended and agreed areas. These joint efforts would be intended to complement any existing partnership frameworks;

c) CTED and UNOCT will consult and collaborate with each other on participation in international, regional, subregional and national events and activities on counter-terrorism-related issues.

4. Cooperation on design and development of projects and programmes

17. CTED and UNOCT have some good examples of successful cooperation in the design and development of projects and programmes as set forth in resolution 2395 \(2017\). However, there is a need to widen and enhance this cooperation to strengthen capacity building support to States and regions.

18. During the development process, UNOCT will work closely with CTED, including by using CTED's assessments and analysis as well as analysis of trends and developments, to identify projects, anchored in the Global Strategy, that would most benefit Member States. As appropriate, CTED would contribute to more detailed project documents developed under the planning phase and the financing and initiation stages, by supporting the identification of donors and the identification and selection of expert consultants and staff.

19. CTED may recommend to UNOCT that it address specific needs through existing programmes supported by UNOCT, and where appropriate may provide advice on adjusting those programmes accordingly in order to respond to evolving needs, threats and trends identified through CTED's ongoing dialogue with Member States and its analysis.

20. CTED and UNOCT will work to ensure that gender and the impact of terrorism on children remain cross-cutting issues throughout all areas of coordination between the two Offices. This work is in line with the gender-related provisions of Security Council resolutions 2178 \(2014\), 2242 \(2015\), 2331 \(2016\), 2395 \(2017\), 2396 \(2017\) and other relevant resolutions, as well as with the gender-related provisions of the fifth-review resolution (A/RES/70/291) of the Global Strategy. CTED and UNOCT will continue to work closely to advance gender equality and the empowerment of women throughout the assistance provided to Member States and to hold consultations with women and women's groups to inform projects and programmes. This includes CTED's sharing of relevant gender recommendations and assessments from its country visits with UNOCT, as well as its gender-sensitive research and data, where appropriate.

5. Sharing of information

a) CTED and UNOCT will continue to hold meetings of the two Heads of Office, as well as monthly coordination meetings, in order to share information on a timely basis and to update each other on relevant plans;

b) CTED will regularly share its mission reports, analytical products and survey tools with UNOCT, with a view to improving their utility, for UNOCT and others, with respect to the design of technical assistance and capacity-building support;

c) UNOCT will share its mission reports with CTED, as well as documentation shared with UNCCT Advisory Board members.

d) CTED will, as appropriate, provide strategic advice to UNOCT leadership on counter-terrorism and countering violent extremism issues, including for the purpose of informing the Secretary-General and other senior leaders of the United Nations;

UNOCT will also share with CTED other relevant information originating from United Nations Offices in the field or at Headquarters, aimed at better informing CTED for the purpose of implementing the tasks conferred by the relevant Security Council resolutions.

D. Strategic communication; monitoring and evaluation of implementation of practical steps

- a) CTED and UNOCT will deliver a joint presentation to the General Assembly, within the framework of the sixth review of the Global Strategy, on the implementation of resolution 2395 (2017) and the present joint report and its impact;
- b) CTED and UNOCT will deliver a joint presentation to the CTC on the implementation of resolution 2395 (2017) and the present joint report;
- c) Where the two Heads of Office undertake a joint visit, they will deliver joint briefings to the relevant bodies, as appropriate and will engage in outreach activities aimed at promoting the impact of those missions;
- d) UNOCT, at the most senior level, will brief the CTC twice annually;
- e) Where appropriate and relevant, the Chair of the CTC may invite UNOCT to participate in CTC meetings (for example, where CTED will be presenting its findings and recommendations from its country visits); and
- f) Where appropriate, UNOCT will invite CTED to jointly brief the General Assembly and the Executive Committee of the Secretary-General on efforts to incorporate CTED's recommendations and analysis into the work of UNOCT.
